FARMERS' RAIL BLOCKADE PEACEFUL

The noon to 4 pm agitation had minimal impact on train services across the country, Indian Railways officials said

TRAINS HALTED AT STATIONS IN FEROZEPUR

In Punjab, protesters sat on tracks at many places on the Delhi-Ludhiana-Amritsar railway route. The Ferozepur division halted trains at stations so that passengers faced less inconvenience during the protest

RESUMED NORMAL OPERATIONS AFTER 4 PM

No untoward incident was reported. Train movement in all the zones resumed to normal after the agitation. The railways had deployed 20 additional companies of the RPF across the country, especially in Punjab, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal

CAUTIOUS DELHI METRO

Entry and exit at four metro stations, including at the Tikri border, were shut by the DMRC authorities for nearly four hours in view of the security situation due to a rail blockade. The Tikri Border metro station is near the farmers' protest site. The entry, exit points were reopened after the four-hour protest ended. Meanwhile, the Delhi Police and paramilitary personnel kept a tight vigil in several parts of the National Capital

ELSEWHERE IN THE COUNTRY

At least 12 people were detained at Lasur station in Aurangabad after they stopped the Jalna-Mumbai Janshatabdi train ahead of the protest schedule

In Rajasthan, the Rewari-Sri Ganganagar special train was cancelled. Apart from this, the protest was largely symbolic with little impact on traffic

In Bengaluru, the protest was low-key but there was a good turnout of protesters in Raichur, Belagavi and Davangere, where some were arrested | P4

Modi moots spl visas for docs, nurses in India's neighbourhood

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday suggested the creation of special visas for doctors and nurses in neighbouring countries to help them respond to health emergencies in the region more effectively.

The Prime Minister was addressing a workshop, initiated by India, on Covid management. "Over the past year, our health cooperation has already achieved so much. Can we now think of raising our ambition further? Can we consider creating a special visa scheme for our doctors and nurses, so that they can travel quickly within our region during health emergencies, on the request of the receiving country?" he said.

The workshop assumed significance as, for the first time in years, Pakistan attended an event initiated by India. Representatives of Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Maldives, Mauritius, Nepal, Seychelles and Sri Lanka participated.

Modi made a slew of other suggestions, including the creation of an air ambulance agreement and a platform for collating, compiling and studying data about the effectiveness of Covid vaccines among the population. Recalling how a Covid-19 Emergency Fund was created last year by the SAARC member states, he sought cooperation for rapid deployment of vaccines.

All countries, including Pakistan, supported Modi's proposals, said sources. They suggested a structured discussion for regional cooperation on these proposals to take them forward. All countries, except Pakistan, thanked India and Modi for vaccine supply, and of medicines, equipment and training in the past.

LOCKDOWNS BACK IN PARTS OF MAHARASHTRA

With fresh Covid cases spiralling again, Maharashtra ordered a 10-day lockdown in Yavatmal district from Thursday night. Also, weekend lockdown was announced in Amravati district from 8 pm on Saturday to 7 am on Monday. The state reported 4,787 new COVID-19 cases on Wednesday, the highest one-day count this year

PACERS ARE THE NEW SEXY

Bowlers capable of generating heat (think Ferguson, Bumrah, Nortje, Rabada Archer) have done well in recent seasons. So it was no surprise to see the likes of Meredith -- who touches north of 145 km/ph easily -- commanding attention. Put Milne (Mumbai) and Richardson (Punjab) in the same bracket.

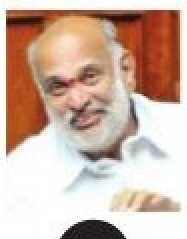
PLAYING IT SAFE

GOVT FOR CHECKS ON CONTRACT EMPLOYEES

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru



Normally, when work or human resource is outsourced, the contractor tends to maximise profits by going in for cheap labour and sometimes ends up hiring people with criminal background

Shivaram Hebbar, Labour Minister

THE State Government is pushing private firms, which hire employees on contract, to go in for police verification before recruiting them. This, the government feels, is necessary to ensure the safety of other employees, specially women, and also the employer.

Labour Minister Shivaram Hebbar said that over the last few months, many cases have come to their notice where contract workers had criminal background. "While companies or industries conduct background verification for permanent staff, it is not done for contract workers. Normally, when work or human resource is outsourced, the contractor tends to maximise profits by going in for cheap labour and sometimes ends up hiring people with criminal background," he pointed out.

He said they are now sending letters to all the companies to henceforth follow a system of verifying the antecedents of employees. "Employing such people could be dangerous, especially when there are women employees. This is just a precautionary measure at the workplace." P7

WISTRON TO RESTART OPS AT KOLAR FACILITY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

The state has always strived to provide a friendly environment to investors and industries. After the incident, the company has started hiring people and they will soon start operations

Jagadish Shettar, Industries Minister

TAIWANESE company Wistron Corporation, a major contract manufacturer of Apple's iPhones, will soon restart its operations at the Narasapura facility near Kolar, Industries Minister Jagadish Shettar said on Thursday. The facility had shut down operations after worker unrest over unpaid wages.

Shettar met Sudipto Gupta, Managing Director, Innovation Business Group, Wistron Smart Devices, and other representatives of the firm at his office when they called on him to express gratitude for the cooperation extended by the State Government in restarting operations.

Shettar said it is unfortunate such an incident occurred in Karnataka. The state has always strived to provide a friendly environment to investors and industries. After the incident, the company has started hiring people and they will soon start operations, he said. He also assured full support to the industry and urged the company authorities to hire people from across Karnataka.

Sudipto too said they have started preparations and will soon start their operations.

Karnataka budget on March 8

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister B S Yediyurappa will present the State Budget on March 8. The dates for the budget session, stretching for almost the whole of March, was approved by the State Cabinet on Thursday.

The budget session will begin on March 4 and the first two days will be allotted for discussions on 'One Nation, One Election', said Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Basavaraj Bommai. "The budget session will begin from March 4. We will dedicate two days — March 4 and 5 — to debate One Nation One Election as discussed in the business advisory committee meeting previously. The Chief Minister will present the budget on March 8. The legislature session will continue till the end of March," Bommai said.

The cabinet has also approved an estimated Rs 700 crore towards treatment of Covid-19 patients till March 31 in various government and private hospitals across the state. "The government's contribution for Covid-19 treatment in government and private hospitals till January was Rs 620 crore. It is estimated that we will require another Rs 80 crore till March 31. A total of Rs 700 crore will be paid from Suvarna Karnataka Arogya scheme," Bommai said. P4

Nephew and son in the spotlight as Shah, Didi trade barbs on nepotism

PRANAB MONDAL @Kolkata

The Centre's grants have been siphoned off by the nephew and his men

Amit Shah, Union home minister

Your son is earning crores of money. How? Your son will also not be spared

Mamata Banerjee, chief minister

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee were on Thursday locked in a war of words while addressing two separate rallies in South 24 Parganas district on the issue of nepotism.

With Shah accusing Mamata's nephew Abhishek Banerjee of siphoning off the Centre's grants meant for people's welfare and warning that the BJP-led government, after wresting power in Bengal, would bring all culprits to book, Mamata hit back saying Shah's son will also not be spared either for earning crores of rupees. Abhishek represents Diamond Harbour in South 24 Parganas in the Lok Sabha and Jay Amit Shah is the powerful secretary of the Indian cricket board.

While addressing a rally at Namkhana, Shah said, "Prime Minister Narendra Modi's government gave financial assistance of ₹3,59,000 crore in the past five years for the people of West Bengal. But the money was siphoned off by the nephew and his men. If the BJP wrests power in Bengal, the new government will find the culprits even if they take refuge under the ground, and put them behind bars."

A riled Mamata for the first time responded to the nephew barb. "Every day you (Shah) raise the nephew issue. Your son is earning crores of money. How? Your son will also not be spared," she growled.

Alleging corruption in distributing relief to cyclone Amphan's victims, Shah said the Centre's grant was stolen by Abhishek and TMC's goons. A few kilometres away from Shah's rally venue, Mamata gave it back while addressing a gathering in Pailan in the same district. "My family will not do anything that could malign the image of Bengal... Abhishek is facing attacks because of me." P10

Air pollution claimed 12K lives in B'luru

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

THE adverse health effects of rising air pollution may already be known, but the number of deaths caused due to it could come as a shocker. According to a Greenpeace report released on Thursday, particulate matter (PM) 2.5 had claimed 12,000 lives in Bengaluru alone in 2020. In Delhi, 54,000 lives were lost in the same year.

This was revealed by the Greenpeace Southeast Asia analysis of IQAir data from a live cost estimator. According to the analysis, globally, approximate 1,60,000 deaths have been attributed to PM 2.5 air pollution in the five most populous cities.

To show the impact of air pollution-related deaths on the economy, Greenpeace employed the "willingness-to-pay" approach. The damage is equally worrying in other Indian cities. An estimated 25,000 avoidable deaths in Mumbai in 2020 have been attributed to air pollution. Chennai and Hyderabad accounted for 11,000 avoidable deaths each due to polluted air, the report said.

An official of the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) in Bengaluru said the biggest cause of PM2.5 is the ongoing construction activities. Despite Rs 279 crore being given to BBMP by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Ecology under the National Clean Air Mission to mitigate air pollution, little can be seen on ground. "The KSPCB also gave Rs 2.2 crore to BBMP for procure air sprinklers, but that is also not to be seen," the official said.

All stakeholders, including the BBMP, transport utilities and KSPCB, had committed before the NGT and State to mitigate air pollution by listing out a 44-point action plan. But this has become difficult to implement due to shortage of funds, the official added. P2

Girl foils parents' Devadasi plan, dials cops

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @Vijayanagara

IN a chilling reminder that some parts of Karnataka have managed to keep alive inhumane practices like the Devadasi system, a 19-year-old girl from Vijayanagara district was rescued last week, after she tipped off police about her parents' shocking plan to push her into this tradition.

The district administration and officials from the Devadasi Nirmoolana Kendra, a centre that works under the women and child welfare department, rescued the girl and warned her parents. Despite being banned, the Devadasi system is still in practice in several parts of North Karnataka.

Officials said Manjula (name changed) was in love with a boy from the neighbourhood, but faced stiff opposition from her family. With only two daughters, her parents were apprehensive that their property would be taken away by Manjula and her husband.

Upon learning that her parents were planning the Devadasi rituals, the girl contacted the police. "The girl's mother is a former devadasi and was keen on pushing her daughter into the practice. Though it's practised in the name of goddesses, girls become sex slaves with no future. After she contacted police last week, we prepared for a raid. Three days after the raid, her parents finally agreed to get their daughter married. The case was solved easily as the victim herself informed the police. She was kept in a government facility before her marriage with her friend a few days later," the official said.

Her parents were made to write a letter to police, stating that they will not change their mind. P7

B'luru airport adds more routes to smaller cities

ENS @Bengaluru

IN heartening news on the domestic air traffic front, Kempegowda International Airport is connecting Bengaluru to more destinations across India than in pre-Covid time. Air travel to non-metro cities, in particular, is showing a positive trend.

Airport operator Bangalore International Airport Limited (BIAL) said KIA now connects 61 destinations across the country, compared to 58 destinations earlier. The additions are Jorhat (IndiGo), Gorakhpur (IndiGo) and Jharsuguda (SpiceJet) that commenced operations in January 2021, a release said.

BIAL cites renewed confidence among passengers on hygiene and safety of air travel, contributing to a significant increase in passenger traffic to non-metro cities. "A daily average of 270 flights, carrying an average of 30,000 passengers per day, departed to non-metro cities in January 2021," it said. There has been a three-fold increase in transfer passengers, it added.

The airport is driving growth in the region, with an increase in non-metro passengers from 55% in fiscal year 2019-2020 to 64% in 2020-21. Bengaluru airport will soon connect to five new destinations - Rajkot, Durgapur (SpiceJet) and Dibrugarh (IndiGo) this month, followed by Agra and Kurnool in March. Thirteen new routes launched for the fiscal year 2020-21 include Silchar, Darbhanga, Amritsar, Nashik and Jabalpur.

JAKKUR IDEAL SPOT FOR TREE PARK: EXPERTS

North Bengaluru has fewer lung spaces and threat of encroachment is high

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

AFTER Forest Minister Arvind Limbavali announced that the move to set up a tree park in Turahalli forest has been put on hold, members of the state wildlife board and activists have begun to suggest alternatives.

At the top of the list of suggestions is the forest near Government Flying School in Jakkur.

Experts and citizens say the spot is ideal as there are fewer lung spaces in north Bengaluru where the pressures of encroachment, development and forest fires are high.

In the last few months the forest department has recovered many land parcels from encroachers and settled land disputes legally. Some activists also suggest that the land around the Flying School could be used to expand a tree park created out of the adjacent forest.

Board members said that 177.14 acres of the Jakkur-Allasandra forest plantation were granted to individuals and residential layouts were also formed. Several deemed forest areas have been encroached and must be looked into before taking a final call on where the tree park could be set up, they said.

Chief Conservator of Forests, Bengaluru Urban, B Venkatesh, said that he could not comment as the minister had announced that the proposal for a tree park at Turahalli has been put on hold, and that no decision has been taken on the location of a new tree park.

Deputy Conservator of Forests, Bengaluru Urban, S S Ravishankar added that names of three places were doing rounds - Kadugodi, Jakkur and Machohalli. The final decision will be taken by the expert committee and the government after holding a meeting.

A senior official however, said, "Since there are no tall trees it is not suitable. Planting trees and protecting them will be a challenge. The government is looking for a ready space."

Wildlife Board members have also suggested that the idea of a mega tree park with a 6km walking track be dropped as such a space is hard to find. The government should work on protect existing lung spaces.

PM2.5 leads to breathing difficulty

UNLIKE PM10, which is filtered, PM2.5 directly enters the lungs and sticks to its walls, leading to breathing difficulty. If the pollutant is mixed with poisonous content, it affects the blood stream also, the official said.

IQAir CEO, Frank Hammes, said, "Breathing should not be deadly. The fact that poor air quality claimed an estimated 1,60,000 lives in the five largest cities alone should make us pause, especially in a year when many cities were seeing lower air pollution levels due to less economic activity. Governments, corporations and individuals must do more to eliminate air pollution and make cities better places to live."

8K smart classrooms, 24/7 power: DyCM

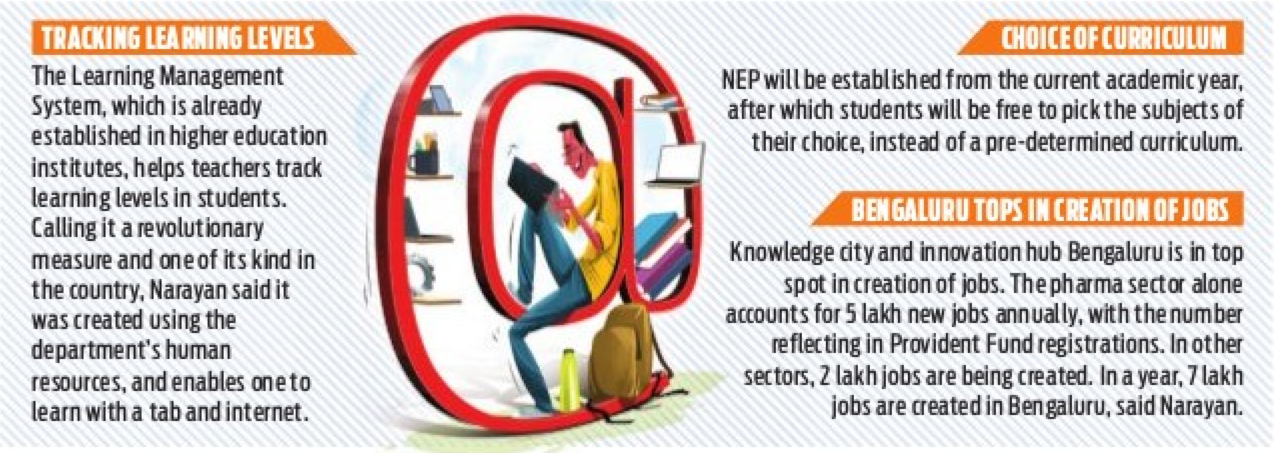
EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru:

THE Covid-19 epidemic could bring good news for the fund-starved education sector, with the State government recognising the necessity of using technology and setting up smart classrooms.

With digital education here to stay, the government plans to convert 2,500 rooms into smart classrooms in institutions under the higher education department, in the next two months, Higher Education Minister and DyCM Dr Ashwath Narayan said. For this purpose, high-speed internet and 24/7 electricity will be provided, he told the media after inaugurating a new gym and annual cultural programme at Bangalore Arts College on Thursday.

In the next six months, 5,500 classrooms will also be similarly equipped, he added. Besides this, high-speed internet and ultra modern tablets will be given to students, and Learning Management System (LMS) implemented for smart classrooms to be a wholesome experience, the DyCM said.

With all these facilities in place, government colleges can compete not just with private educational institutes but also with global ones, he said.



TRACKING LEARNING LEVELS

The Learning Management System, which is already established in higher education institutes, helps teachers track learning levels in students. Calling it a revolutionary measure and one of its kind in the country, Narayan said it was created using the department's human resources, and enables one to learn with a tab and internet.

CHOICE OF CURRICULUM

NEP will be established from the current academic year, after which students will be free to pick the subjects of their choice, instead of a pre-determined curriculum.

BENGALURU TOPS IN CREATION OF JOBS

Knowledge city and innovation hub Bengaluru is in top spot in creation of jobs. The pharma sector alone accounts for 5 lakh new jobs annually, with the number reflecting in Provident Fund registrations. In other sectors, 2 lakh jobs are being created. In a year, 7 lakh jobs are created in Bengaluru, said Narayan.

Disha's parents didn't know extent of her green activism: Family friend

BALA CHAUHAN @Bengaluru

DISHA Ravi's parents Manjula and Ravi knew their daughter was passionate about civic issues But didn't know the extent of her engagement in environmental issues, Disha's family friend and advocate Prasanna R told TNIE.

"Our friendship with Disha's family goes back to three generations. I have not personally met Disha though," he said.

"Her mother feels very proud when Disha asks people not to use plastic or waste water etc and tells them to be conscious about their civic responsibilities. But her parents didn't know to what extent she was engaged in her activism. They are very simple people and come from a humble agrarian background. The family was in deep shock for the first two days of her arrest. She spoke to them from Delhi and said she was fine," he added.

"They are very anxious about their daughter and are praying to have her back home safely," said Prasanna.

Delhi police arrested Disha on February 13 and her five-day police custody ends on Friday.

While her parents are liberal enough to allow her to think on her own, "there are elders in the family, who are concerned about a girl being engaged in civic issues," he said.

Asked whether Disha was alerted by Nikita about the police action, Prasanna said he didn't know whether Disha was informed about it. "Whether she is naïve or has let her guard down is difficult to answer," he added. Nikita and another associate Shantanu have obtained anticipatory bail.

Narrating the sequence of events when the Delhi police came to her house to arrest her, Prasanna said one of Disha's legal counsels shared the Bengaluru City Police Commissioner's number with Manjula. "She spoke to the officer. He said he didn't know about her daughter's arrest and that he would speak to the jurisdictional police. He said he would look into the matter," said Prasanna.

Disha has been arrested on charges of sedition, criminal conspiracy and for creating disharmony among groups over an FIR registered by Delhi police.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

19th February: I don't often plug web sites, but I'd like to mention www.dark-skies.org. The campaign for dark skies protests against the excessive use of street lighting in cities which makes it impossible for so many urban folk to see the splendour of the stars. It's well worth supporting. If you live in the country, well away from the nearest town, then I envy you.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Although financial schemes may seem to stagnate, today's stars are relatively lively and the end of the week brings a steadily increasing pace. Friends and partners may put demands on your time, and everyone will benefit from a touch of your distinctive humour.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your business and financial activities, whether real or potential, are becoming ever more complex. Busy times lie ahead and routine chores will therefore mount up. Social introductions should be interesting, and you may fall under someone's spell.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Romantic affairs still figure strongly in your calculations, although today's influences in this respect may catch you by surprise. Unfortunately, partners who envy your success may be in a fault-finding mood. You may have to play the martyr, just to placate them!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Partners who are in an argumentative mood will be out of step today. If anyone in your vicinity is upset then be quick to cheer them up, settling disputes and freeing the way for everyone to move on to more constructive avenues. Once you are sure of your next step, please seek support from partners.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Professional issues are brought into focus by a series of planets aligned with your tenth and sixth solar houses, especially if you are in the habit of overworking and tiring yourself out. Take it easy if you want to make the most of positive and daring romantic trends.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
There is no doubt that the Sun's relationship with Venus and Jupiter in suitably ambitious sectors of your solar chart creates brilliant and idealistic possibilities today. It is up to you to set the pace and turn events to your own unique advantage.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There will indeed be some pressure to make positive career changes, but you'll be able to rely on powerful planetary influences to push you in the right direction. Status may be more important than monetary rewards, yet that doesn't mean that cash concerns should be overlooked.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
As a Scorpio you are by nature deeply motivated by your beliefs. Partners will be impressed if you share your profound insights and ideas, and keep them up to date with your plans for the future. The weekend's arguments could focus on money - and who owes whom what!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Even though it may be out of character, plotting ways to earn more money has become one of your favourite activities, even if your ideas seldom move beyond the planning stage. If you're spending cash today, gadgets to help with a healthier lifestyle could be a good buy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Even if you're in a secretive mood today, as long as the Moon is aligned with romantic and creative sectors, social and romantic opportunities abound and you'll appreciate considerate and loving behaviour from partners. Take the lead and show how generous you can be now that you're so much more experienced.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Mercury's relationship with the foundation of your horoscope means that changes in the home may require more thought, although you'll probably be impatient with anybody who stands in your way. It would be a shame if arguments over who does what spoiled your weekend - so don't let them!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Short trips could make for an enjoyable day and you will be tempted by diversions and distractions. The time for improvements to your home environment is still with you, so press on regardless. In love, give partners the first choice, and do your best to fulfil their wishes.

NEW STATE POLICY TO GIVE MENTAL HEALTH ITS DUE

Will be ready by second week of April; to address shortage of competent professionals in primary healthcare centres

CHETANA BELAGERE @Bengaluru

KARNATAKA will soon come out with a new health policy which will be holistic. Details of the policy are being worked out in consultation with the State's health experts.

Speaking to TNIE, Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar said, "Karnataka's new health policy will be ready by the second week of April. The best of minds are working on this."

Dr Sudhakar said, "The policy will include every aspect of healthcare — non-communicable diseases, addressing poor lifestyles, communicable diseases, hygiene measures."

Health and Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar distributes 'Health and Hygiene kits' to ASHA workers on Thursday in Bengaluru | MEGHANA SASTRY

"It will look at strengthening the PHCs by addressing the shortage of qualified and competent professionals in the healthcare delivery system, especially in rural Karnataka. It will also include mental health as one of the integral components of primary healthcare," he said.

"Establishing research funds to encourage public health research will also be done. Healthcare in terms of going digital will be a part of the policy," the minister said.

Dr Giridhara Babu, senior epidemiologist and public health expert, said the state should come up with an evidence-based public health policy — which should determine planning and spending.

"Disease surveillance is extremely important. With the Covid situation, it is important to have SOPs regarding reporting diseases," he said.

According to Dr Vishal Rao, head and neck oncologist, HCG Hospitals, the state health policy note has the potential to change the current healthcare perspectives for the better, to help us envision the roadmap for providing comprehensive health tools, especially to the underprivileged.

He explained, "Healthcare is often confused with medical care. Medical care is only a part of healthcare and comes into play whenever there is deviation from health. The holistic term 'Healthcare' is about treating the underlying cause, not merely the symptomatic effect in the form of illness and disorder."

Dr Vishal said the Out of Pocket model is a big burden on all the citizens, unlike the efficient healthcare models practised in some industrialised nations.

Contract health staff unhappy with 15% pay hike proposal

ENS @Bengaluru

KARNATAKA State Health and Medical Education Department Contractual and Outsourced Employees' Association released a statement on Thursday stating that they are unhappy with the 15 percent pay hike recommended by a committee formed by the government. The 11-member committee includes IAS (retired) officer P N Srinivasachari and Legislative Council member Ayanur Manjunath. A meeting will be held by the association on February 21 to decide the further course of action based on the recommendations.

"We are not satisfied with the hike recommendation and want to be paid on par with regular employees. They have not suggested regularisation but asked for an act similar to the Karnataka Daily Wage Employees Welfare Act Rules, 2013, to be made for contract and outsourced health workers," said Vishwaradhya HY, president of the association.

Last year, nearly 30,000 contract and outsourced health workers went on a strike demanding regularisation, hike in pay on par with permanent employees, and job security.

"We are happy with some of the recommendations such as health insurance, transfer rules, compensation in case of on duty death or accidents and preference given to permanent government jobs," he said.

The association, in the press statement, demanded the state government to pay Covid risk incentive immediately to those awaiting it as only around 14,000 out of the 30,000 contract and outsourced doctors, nurses and other staff, have received it.

Bommanahalli cluster cases rise to 109 +ves

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Covid cluster at an apartment complex in Bommanahalli Zone has now become the biggest one reported in a single area in Bengaluru so far, according to BBMP Chief Health Officer Vijendra. As on Thursday evening, 109 cases had been reported in the apartment complex in Bilekahalli, he said.

Of those who tested positive, 96 are aged above 60 and the children are all above 10 years.

BBMP Joint Commissioner for Bommanahalli Zone, Ramakrishna, said the apartment complex has been declared as a containment zone, but the place has not been sealed. "All public utility spaces like spa, gym, swimming pool and community hall are sealed. Visitors are not allowed to enter the apartment complex and residents have also been prohibited from stepping out. Volunteers have been stationed at the gates to keep a close watch," he added.

Ramakrishna added that no more tests were needed to be done. "The next tests, as per routine, will be held on the seventh day and then subsequently," he said, adding that these cases were not due to the new strain of virus.

Meanwhile, the BBMP has intensified its exercise of roping in volunteers and making all RWAs active to keep a watch on the cases and report them, if any symptoms are reported. BBMP officials informed that people need not panic and the situation is under control as aggressive testing has started.

Health Commissioner Dr Thrilok Chandra said, "Surveillance measures are already in place, with this apartment being in a containment zone. Regular supply of essentials will not be affected."

'Covid trajectory hinges on superspreader events'

CHETANA BELAGERE @Bengaluru

THE course of the pandemic in Karnataka will now be determined by new susceptible pools in closed superspreader venues, experts say.

The warning comes in the wake of cluster outbreaks at nursing colleges in Mangaluru and Bengaluru, and an apartment complex in the state capital. Dr C N Manjunath, member of Covid Advisory Committee attributed the rise in cases to the increased movement of people, especially people from Kerala and Maharashtra coming to Karnataka, and the resumption of activities after restrictions were lifted.

"Covid fatigue - reduction in people wearing masks and sanitising their hands - appears to have set in, and it can be really dangerous. However, it is too early to say that this is the onset of a second wave. We must be mindful that the pandemic is still here. Vaccination is taking place at a slow pace. Inoculation of the general public (above age 50, and with comorbidities) will start only next month. Until then, people have to remain vigilant," he said.

A health worker collects a swab sample from a traveller at a KSRTC bus stand in Bengaluru on Thursday | MEGHANA SASTRY

Referring to the cluster cases, senior epidemiologist and member of the Technical Advisory Committee, Dr Giridhara Babu said, "These are superspreader events. As long as there are infections, the risk of superspreader events will be present," he said.

He said that the risk of virus spread in closed spaces such as dining halls, meeting halls, reading rooms in colleges and hostels, club houses in apartments, etc, is high.

Research shows that SARS-CoV-2 can travel about six feet from an infected person, and infect between two and four individuals. So, when people congregate in a place — for worship/shopping/commute/parties/gatherings — the chance of spread multiplies, resulting in a cluster of cases.

A senior doctor said that the size of a disease cluster could vary - from just four cases to as many as 5,000 - and that people who belong to a disease cluster need not have shared space and time.

"For instance, someone who picks up the infection from a birthday party may infect a cab driver who picks him up. Such secondary transmissions also belong to the same cluster, with the primary source being the person in the party. The cluster keeps growing as the driver could infect a family member, the passenger could infect a nurse in a clinic after developing symptoms, and so on. Hence, quick contact tracing becomes extremely important. Every moment wasted will spread the virus further," the doctor said.

Health Commissioner Dr Thrilok Chandra said that the department will intensify contact tracing in the cluster cases. "We'll soon come up with guidelines to ensure that cases dont rise," he said.

Police detain farmers at Yeshwantpur railway station during the rail roko against the Centre's farm laws | SHRIRAM B N

DEMANDING the repeal of farm laws, farmers attempted to lay siege to railway stations across the State on Thursday, in response to the call for 'Rail Roko' given by the Samyukta Kisan Morcha.

However, the call received lukewarm response in several districts, including Bengaluru, and in several places where farmers attempted to enter railway stations, police detained them.Farmers led by Kuruburu Shanthakumar, the state president of the Confederation of Farmers Associations, and under the banner of Aikya Horata Samithi, tried to enter the Yeshwantpur railway station in Bengaluru but were detained by police, who outnumbered them.

The protesting farmers raised slogans against the Union government. "The government is suppressing the protests and voice of farmers. We have come here for a symbolic protest but the police are not allowing it. We will continue the protests till the farm laws, which spell doom for farmers, are withdrawn, even if the police arrest us," Shanthakumar said.

Even before the farmers gathered at Mysuru railway station premises, security was tightened around the station. Activists led by Hallikeri Hundi Bhagyaraj raised slogans against the Central government and demanded that the laws be withdrawn. "We are protesting against this for more than three months but the government has failed to address it. All governments, whether state or central, which have acted against the interests of farmers have lost power, and it's high time that the BJP government understands this and repeal the laws," Bhagyaraj said.

> The government is suppressing the protests and voice of farmers. We will continue the protests till the farm laws, which spell doom for farmers, are withdrawn...
> Kuruburu Shanthakumar, farmer leader

The agitators alleged that the police blocked farmers en route to the protest site and called it a brazen misuse of power. One of the agitators started hitting a bus stationed in front of the railway station, forcing the police to detain all the agitators.

In Shivamogga, farmer leaders convinced the police to allow them to enter the station and stage a peaceful protest. K T Gangadhar, state working president of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha and Hasiru Sene, said the Union government's move will affect farmers as they won't get loans from small banks. "When farmers don't get loans from the bank, they are forced to avail loans from corporate and other finance companies by pledging their assets. It will also pave the way for a contract farming system."

A large number of farmers attempted to storm the Belagavi railway station and a verbal duel ensued between them and the police. Protesters alleged that the Prime Minister and Union Home Minister were anti-farmer and said all MLAs and MPs were also working against the interests of the State, and questioned the Centre's refusal to repeal the farm laws despite massive opposition.

In Bidar, farmers tried to stop the Nanded-Bengaluru City Express but were stopped and allowed to stage a token protest in front of the train instead. Protests took place in Hubballi, Koppal, Raichur, Vijayapura, Davangere, Kolar, and other districts also.

'Cong opposing farm laws for political gain'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Hassan

BJP National General Secretary Arun Singh inaugurates a party workers' meet in Hassan on Thursday. Party state chief Nalin Kumar Kateel was also present

COMING down heavily on the Congress, BJP National General Secretary Arun Singh on Thursday alleged that the Grand Old Party was opposing the new farm laws to gain political mileage.

Singh, who is also in-charge of BJP affairs in Karnataka, was addressing presidents and secretaries of different wings of the state unit here.

Stating that over 90 per cent of farmers in the country are happy with the new farm laws, Singh slammed Congress leaders Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi for supporting the farmer agitations and said the duo was making futile attempts to prove they weren't anti-farmer and anti-poor.

He said the former Congress president was making statements against the Centre for cheap publicity, and had nothing concrete to take on the BJP.

Singh said the Congress had failed to eradicate poverty, in spite of ruling the country for more than 60 years.

The people of the country had elected the BJP due to frustration over the bad policies of the Congress governments, and Prime Minister Narendra Modi has introduced unique programmes to maintain economic stability, and cannot be compared with former prime minister Manmohan Singh, he said.

He lauded the recent Anti-Cow Slaughter Bill and good governance of the Yediyurappa government. Urging party workers to strive hard to win the 2023 assembly elections with a thumping majority, he said BJP leaders should reach out to rural masses by highlighting the schemes and programmes of the State and Centre.

State BJP President Nalin Kumar Kateel, district minister Gopalaiah and other party leaders were present on the occasion.

AHEAD of Samyuktha Kisan Morcha leader Rakesh Tikait's tour of Karnataka in March to drum up support against the farm laws, farmer leader Nandhini Jayaram has asked the farmer organisations to take a leaf from the morcha and unite to convert the protest into a mass movement.

The 42 farmers organisations, coming under one banner under the leadership of Tikait, have exhibited unity that can take on the government and its laws, she said.

Speaking after paying tribute to KRRS leader K S Puttaniah on his third death anniversary on Thursday, Nandini said unity and mass movement are the only solutions to get rid of the globalisation policies. Referring to the Green Revolution and claims of an increase in food production, she said that only 10% of the land was irrigated then and the country grew raw material to meet the needs of foreign countries.

Sunitha Puttannaiah, wife of late farmer leader Puttanniah, said that the youths should unite in villages and strengthen the Raitha Sangha.

Local body polls: Siddu to hold rallies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

OPPOSITION leader Siddaramaiah will address a series of rallies to bolster the party's fortunes in the upcoming elections to Zilla and Taluk panchayats. The first such convention is likely to be held in Kalaburgi in the next few weeks.

"Siddaramaiah will address a convention organized to felicitate Kuruba and Koli Samaj members, who have been recently elected as Gram Panchayat members. The programme is being organized by the community leaders and not by the party," sources close to Siddaramaiah said. Siddaramaiah stayed away from the Kuruba community convention held recently to demand ST tag to the community. To get back the support of the Kuruba community as well as other communities, Siddaramaiah will address a number of conventions in the next few months, sources said.

The need to hold such conventions is also said to have been discussed with the party central leaders during his recent visit to New Delhi.

Govt will take suitable decision on quota: DyCM

Bengaluru: Amid growing clamour for reservation by various communities, DyCM C N Ashwath Narayan said that the State Government will take an appropriate decision giving justice to all. He said, "The government will try to provide reservation scientifically and to those who are denied justice. We will do whatever is possible under the ambit of the Constitution."

Yatnal irrelevant for BJP: Arun Singh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

BJP National General Secretary and party in-charge of Karnataka affairs Arun Singh on Thursday rubbished party MLA and former Union Minister Basanagouda Patil Yatnal's allegations against Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa and his son and BJP state vice-president BY Vijayendra.

"He has been making false allegations from many years just for the sake of getting media attention and that is not important for us. We are running a good government and we will focus on the governance," Singh told mediapersons here. Singh said the party has already issued notice to Yatnal and action will be taken after getting the response. "He is irrelevant for us. He has been embarrassing the party again and again," Singh said responding to a question if some leaders within the party are extending tacit support to Yatnal.

> Yatnal is irrelevant for us. He has been embarrassing the party again and again

> Arun Singh. BJP National General Secretary

Earlier in the day, Yatnal had accused Vijayendra of funding Congress and RJD during Bihar assembly elections. Yatnal said he has submitted a detailed 11-page response to the showcause notice that was issued to him by the party and in his response he had raised several issues related to the party and the state administration. Claiming that he had not indulged in anti-party activities, Yatnal said he had spoken against the CM and his family as there is no respect for BJP MLAs and state administration is not working in accordance with the principles of PM Modi. "I have never given any statement against the party or our leader Modi's leadership," Yatnal said.

Cabinet's ₹1,848-crore boost for construction of 2K km rural roads

AS part of its big-ticket infrastructure project, the cabinet has approved the construction of 2,201.74 km of rural roads under the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana Phase-III at a cost of Rs 1,848.95 crore.

Other cabinet decisions:

- ₹ 1,358 crore for revised housing projects under eight housing schemes of the Karnataka Housing Board.

Oppn unites to hit out at Modi over fuel price rise

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

WITH fuel prices touching an all-time high -- petrol is about Rs 93/litre and diesel Rs 85/litre in Bengaluru -- opposition parties have lodged a strong protest, saying this will hit the common man's wallet hard, especially with the Covid-19 pandemic leading to job losses and pay cuts.

Such prices are unacceptable when crude oil prices are at a low of $55 a barrel, they said.

Opposition leader in the Rajya Sabha Mallikarjun Kharge told TNIE, "I condemn this government's attitude. It is unfortunate that PM Modiji has blamed the Congress for this after being in power for seven years. High diesel prices have a cascading effect on farmers and the common man. Let me remind Modiji that one cannot fool all the people all the time."

Opposition leader Siddaramaiah said, "Petrol has touched Rs 100 per litre. This spells disaster for the poor and middle classes. PM Narendra Modi is solely responsible for this. His government has failed to manage public finance and is now taxing people to cover the deficit. During the UPA regime, petrol cost Rs 70 when crude oil was $110 a barrel. Now, petrol costs Rs 100 even when crude oil is about $55."

Former CM HD Kumaraswamy wanted the government to cut excise duty and levies. "PM Modi blaming previous regimes for the hike is not a statement a responsible person should make. The government needs to cut duties immediately, but it is more bothered about revenue collection. Due to the Covid pandemic, there has been a steep drop in earnings, besides job losses. How this will affect the poor and farmers is anybody's guess."

The Congress has threatened to hold protests across the state if fuel prices do not come down. MLC BK Hariprasad said the government has proved it is anti-farmer and anti-poor.

Countering the attack, BJP General Secretary and Karnataka in-charge Arun Singh said petrol price is highest in Rajasthan, a Congress-ruled state. "Let the Congress protest in Rajasthan first," he said.

BYPOLL TO COUNCIL SEAT ON MARCH 15

Bengaluru: The Election Commission of India on Thursday announced the schedule for the bypoll to one seat in the Karnataka Legislative Council which fell vacant following the death of S L Dharmegowda of JDS on December 28, 2020. Gowda's term was to end on June 17, 2024. Polling and counting of votes will be held on March 15 and the notification will be issued on February 25. The last date for filing of nomination is March 4 while the last date for withdrawal is March 8. After polling from 9 am to 4 pm on March 15, counting of votes will be taken up after 5 pm the same day. Members of the Assembly are the electorate for this Council seat. BJP leader A H Vishwanth is said to be keen on contesting the byelection. He was among those JDS and Congress legislators who resigned from their Assembly membership and parties to help the BJP form the government in the state. He was one of the 17 MLAs disqualified by the Assembly Speaker under the anti-defection law. They were allowed to contest the elections after approaching the Supreme Court. After he unsuccessfully contested the Assembly byelection, he was nominated as a member of the Council. ENS

Surjewala meets Ibrahim, hopes to stall defection to JDS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a bid to retain MLC C M Ibrahim in the Congress fold, the party's General Secretary and state in-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala personally went to meet the senior leader after consulting Opposition leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC President D K Shivakumar.

Last month, Ibrahim met JDS supremo H D Deve Gowda along with former CM H D Kumaraswamy, invoking the displeasure of Congress leaders. Kumaraswamy had visited Ibrahim, after which the two had visited Gowda.

Ibrahim is a Congress MLC, and there was talk that he would switch sides and be made JDS working president. JDS was also interested in getting back Ibrahim, who had served as Civil Aviation minister in 1996. It is no secret that the JDS got a negligible number of Muslim votes, and their effort to rope in Ibrahim is to try and regain votes in certain pockets where the party lost. It is an open secret that Ibrahim was sending signals about his unhappiness with Congress leadership. He used to be seen with Siddaramaiah regularly, but this was not the case in the past few months.

Ibrahim reportedly told Surjewala, "I have nothing against anyone but I have issues against certain processes, which need to be addressed.'' Surjewala assured him he would convey his concerns to the high command.

The Congress, too, is not ready to take any community's support for granted, and is especially cautious about the minority issue in the backdrop of Youth Congress president aspirant Mohammed Nalapad's disqualification after the election, and talk of certain leaders' malafide intentions.

Minority votes are not the monopoly of the Congress, which is wary of the SDPI and All India Majlis-e-Ittehad-ul-Muslimeen threat. This new belligerence on the part of the JDS by trying to rope in a strong Muslim leader may not be to Congress' advantage.

Auto-rickshaw driver held for burglary

BENGALURU: An auto driver, who used to mark out houses of his passengers and burgle them, has landed in the police net. Faizan Ahmed (19), a resident of Thanisandra Main Road, was arrested by the Bandepalya police. Police said that Ahmed was arrested in connection with two burglary cases. "The accused used to note whether his passengers locked their houses and if there was anyone at home while picking them up or dropping them. Later, he would return, break the door lock and decamp with valuables," the police said. "One offence was committed in 2019, while another one was in 2020. Gold jewelery weighing 47 gram have been seized from him," the police added. ENS

26-year-old nabbed, 5 kg silver recovered

BENGALURU: The Byadarahalli police have arrested a 26-year-old youth, who had stolen silver articles from the shop where he worked. The accused is identified as Chethan from Sugganahall in Ramanagara district. Police said that the complainant, Manikanta, was running a shop where silver articles were prepared. He had received an order from a jewellery store and had stored silver articles in his shop. "As his father was unwell, Manikanta went to Mandya on February 4. When he returned on February 6, he found the shop closed and all silver items missing. He contacted Chethan, but the phone was switched off. Based on his complaint, the accused was traced and arrested. We have recovered 5 kg of silver articles worth Rs 3 lakh," the police added. ENS

Big haul of smuggled goods at KIA

Foreign cigarettes, beauty creams worth Rs 3.4 lakh seized from passenger from Dubai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

The items seized at the Kempegowda International Airport

IMPORTED cigarettes and beauty products valued at Rs 3.4 lakh were seized by Customs officials at the Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) from a passenger from Dubai.

The 23-old native of Kasargod in Kerala was caught after he alighted from the Air India Express flight (IX 1246) on Wednesday night, said a senior Customs official. "The flyer had concealed 11,800 cigarette sticks of popular brands — 'Dunhill Switch' and 'Benson and Hedges Blue Gold' — in his check-in baggage," the official said. They are totally worth Rs 2,36,000.

"It was through passenger profiling and scanning that we caught him," he added. The passenger had also concealed 120 pieces of Faiza Beauty cream valued at Rs 84,000 and 45 pieces of 'New Face' beauty cream valued at Rs 20,250. The total value of all the goods came to Rs 3,40,250, he said.

Smuggling of imported cigarettes and creams from Dubai to KIA have been on the rise the last two months. "An international passenger is permitted to bring a maximum of 100 cigarette sticks. While pieces of creams can be brought in, bringing them in bulk is not permitted," another official said.

Two, including woman, held for smuggling gold at MIA

Mangaluru: Two international passengers, including a woman, were arrested by customs officials at the Mangalore International Airport (MIA) on Thursday and gold worth more than Rs 53,50,000 was seized from them. The passengers had arrived in an Air India flight from Dubai in the early hours of Thursday.

"The female smuggler, identified as Fathima Kottachery (47) from Kasargod, was carrying 805 gram (net) gold, valued at ₹38,88,150, in powder form mixed with gum concealed in sanitary napkin. Another passenger, Mohammed Mohideen (50), from Bhatkal, smuggled 303 gram (net) gold, valued at ₹14,63,490, in his rectum," a custom official said. Investigation is under progress.

'Survey aims to rehabilitate destitute kids'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday said that the object for collection of data of children, who are forced to sell toys and other goods on streets and traffic signals in the city, is to rehabilitate them and protect their rights under the Right to Education Act, and not to penalise anybody.

A division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum passed the order after hearing all stakeholders — the traffic police, BBMP and NGOs — on their roles in collection of data through survey, in response to public interest litigation filed by city-based Letzkit Foundation seeking directions for rehabilitation of such children.

During the hearing, senior officials of the police department submitted that the traffic police should be part of data collection teams in all the eight zones under the BBMP and members of the Special Juvenile Police Unit accompany the teams.

Dr Seshadri of Samvad, an NGO, submitted that a workshop will be conducted for those who are involved in the survey. The BBMP Commissioner said that they will constantly coordinate with the teams and provide the required number of vehicles, food and accommodation to them, besides establishing temporary shelters for children if the authorities secure them.

HC quashes FIR against firm for setting up cryptocurrency ATM

The Karnataka High Court has quashed an FIR and subsequent proceedings initiated against co-founders of Unocoin Technologies for setting up an ATM kiosk in the city to trade in cryptocurrency. Allowing the petition filed by B V Harish and Sathvik Vishwanath, Justice H P Sandesh quashed the FIR and chargesheet filed against them by the Cyber Crime Police, citing the judgment of the Supreme Court, which on April 6, 2018, quashed the circular issued by the Reserve Bank of India prohibiting virtual currencies. The Cyber Crime Police registered the FIR against Harish and Vishwanath on October 23, 2018, and filed the chargesheet on May 3, 2019. The First ACMM court took cognisance of the offence.

Puducherry Cong govt to face trust vote on Feb 22

Both ruling, oppn parties have 14 MLAs each; voting to take place by a show of hands

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Puducherry

WITHIN hours of taking charge, Lieutenant Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan on Thursday directed Chief Minister V Narayanasamy to prove his government's majority on the floor at a special session of the Assembly to be convened on February 22.

According to a Raj Nivas release, following the disqualification of one MLA and resignation of four others, all from the Congress, the strength of Assembly has changed -- with both the ruling and opposition alliances having 14 legislators each.

The release said the L-G had passed orders directing the summoning of the Assembly, and had also conveyed the matter to the Chief Minister. As per the directions issued, the voting will take place by a show of hands, and the entire proceedings will be videotaped. The floor test should be completed by 5pm, and proceedings must not be adjourned, delayed or suspended at any cost. The L-G has also directed the Chief Secretary and the DGP to take necessary steps to ensure that there is no restraint or hindrance whatsoever on any of the MLAs in attending the trust vote.

Currently, in the ruling alliance, Congress has 10 MLAs, DMK has 3, and 1 is an independent candidate. In the opposition, NR Congress has 7 MLAs, AIADMK has 4, and BJP has 3 nominated members. Earlier in the day, Opposition leaders called on L-G and reiterated their request for the Narayanasamy-government to prove its majority on the floor.

The current L-G, Tamilisai Soundararajan, assumed additional charge of Puducherry only on Thursday morning, in a simple ceremony held at the Raj Nivas. Chief Justice of Madras High court Sanjeeb Banerjee administered the oath of office and secrecy to her. She took the oath in Tamil.

TS lawyer couple's murder: TRS man arrested

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Peddapalli

A day after the gruesome daylight murder of lawyer couple Gattu Vaman Rao and his wife Nagamani at Kalvacherla in the district, police on Thursday arrested the three main accused in the case -- TRS' Manthani mandal president Kunta Srinu, his driver Chiranjeevi and Akkapaka Kumar, who helped them in the perpetration of the crime.

According to Inspector General (IG) of Police Y Nagireddy, soon after intercepting the couple's car, it was Chiranjeevi who stabbed Nagamani and as Srinu dragged Vaman Rao out, they hacked him to death. "Apart from Vaman Rao's video statement in which he said that it was Srinu who attacked him, his driver also confirmed the same," Nagireddy said at a press conference.

The motive behind the murders was that the couple used to take up cases against Srinu, who masterminded the killings. For instance, Vaman Rao took up the case of an "illegal" house construction by Srinu. He also had a flaming row with the TRS leader over the constitution of a temple committee for the local Ramalayam. In another incident, he was getting ready to file a petition in court against the construction of the Peddama Talli temple in Gunjapadugu village. The couple even visited the village and took the signatures of Vaman Rao's father Kishan Rao and brother on some documents to fight a case against the temple's construction.

Protests erupt

Political parties, activists, advocates and students took to the streets across the State on Thursday to protest against the murder of the couple.

The IG said they arrested the accused near the Maharashtra border and questioned them to ascertain their motive. Chiranjeevi, accused no. 2, is Srinu's driver, who felt obliged to him because of the monetary help he had extended to him during lockdown. "Srinu had loaned him ₹50,000 and ever since, he has been working as his driver," the IG said.

'Family worried about property'

"ON inquiry, we learnt that the parents were worried about their property being taken away by their daughter and her husband, so they planned the rituals and also contacted a senior devadasi," the official added

In several parts of Kalyana Karnataka, the Devadasi system is followed even today. In Ballari and newly-formed Vijayanagara districts, the administrations are trying hard to eradicate the system. Both these districts have 10,000 registered devadasis who are currently under government rehabilitation. The State government provides them a monthly pension of Rs 1,500.

With government agencies keeping an eye on these practices, the system is followed in secret.

Why only 3 RTI queries per year, asks activist

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

INFORMATION officials of Rani Channamma University have recently rejected an RTI application on the ground that an individual can file only three applications in a year.

This, despite the Karnataka Information Commission making it clear on January 1, 2019, that it has not given any order or expressed opinion that a person can seek information from one government department or institute only through three applications in a year under the Right to Information (RTI) Act of 2005.

In January, Surendra Ugare filed five RTI applications seeking information from the university on different issues. In the answer column, the university said, 'The applicant has submitted more than three RTI applications in the current year, the previous three applications have been disposed of. Since an individual is permitted to seek information through only three RTI applications, the next two applications have been rejected.'

Ugare, an RTI activist, alleged that the university had cited three applications as reason to cover up the misappropriation done in the university. "I have approached the appellate authority and have urged it to take action against the official for giving wrong information," he said.

Ugare brought to the notice of the appellate authority of a 2016 case. He said that when an RTI applicant in Bengaluru Rural district asked for information under the RTI Act at Visvesharpur Gram Panchayat in Nelamangala taluk a couple of years ago, he got the same reply.

The Panchayat officials replied, "This applicant is permitted to submit only three RTI applications in a year to seek particular information as per the Supreme Court order. But, he has asked for 16 RTI applications at a time. Thus, the first three applications have been answered and the remaining applications are rejected."

Colleges took ₹402 crore in illegal fees, says I-T dept

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Income Tax Department on Thursday said that their search and seizure operation on nine major trusts which are running educational institutions, including medical colleges in Bengaluru and Mangaluru, has unearthed acceptance of illegal capitation fees to the tune of Rs 402.78 crore and also investments in foreign nations.

A release by the department through the Press Information Bureau says that so far, the evidence gathered indicates that money has been accepted as illegal capitation fees by manipulating the online admission process and this has not been disclosed to the department.

The search operation at 56 locations across Karnataka and Kerala on Wednesday, according to the statement, has uncovered evidence of cash-for-seat malpractices in admission to MBBS, BDS and post-graduate courses in the form of notebooks, handwritten diaries, Excel sheets containing details of cash received from students/brokers for admission in these colleges for various years.

"It was also observed that the management, faculty, staff, meritorious students and brokers are working in close nexus to manipulate the online admission process," the statement said. The officials found that the transparent selection process to medical colleges through NEET has been subverted by trustees and key persons running these medical colleges in collusion with agents/brokers and some students who got high ranks in NEET.

The college managements were admitting less meritorious candidates after collecting huge sums as capitation fee/donations in cash which are illegal under the Karnataka Educational Institutions (Prohibition of Capitation Fee) Act,1984, the statement said. The department also found evidence indicating that one of the medical colleges has some sort of "package arrangement" for passing management quota students in written examination and viva-voce for sums ranging from Rs 1 lakh to Rs 2 lakh.

The colleges had also diverted the cash collected for non-charitable purposes by the trustees. Many had made huge investments in immovable properties with huge cash component. One of the colleges has reportedly diversified into the business of timber/plywood industry and has undisclosed foreign assets too.

"Searches have resulted in seizure of cash amounting to Rs 15.09 crore. Gold jewellery of 81 kg (valued at Rs 30 crore), 50 carat diamonds and 40 kg of silver articles have been found from the residential premises of the trustees and are prime facie, unexplained. Evidence of undisclosed foreign assets of Rs 2.39 crore in Ghana has also been found apart from evidence of huge investments in 35 luxury cars in benami names," the statement said.

PES Univ will launch satellite to monitor ships

ENS @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU-based PES University is set to launch a micro satellite - RSAT into a polar sun synchronous orbit of 500 km on February 28, with the support of Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO), as demonstration of proof of concept. RSAT is a 3-axis stabilized agile micro-satellite weighing 15 kg and measuring 300mm x 300 mm x 300mm with deployable solar panels, according to a release. This will be the second satellite being developed in the university to be launched into orbit.

The micro-satellite was configured and developed after the DRDO sanctioned a Contract for Acquiring Research Services to the university to carry a Satellite Based Automatic Identification System (SB-AIS) payload. SB-AIS will help monitor ships on high seas and provide information about their movement. The payload receives AIS signals transmitted by ships in VHF band, processes and transmits the information to a ground station.

FKCCI chief: Background checks should be fast

IN Karnataka, a large number of companies/industries have outsourced employees. Speaking to The New Indian Express, Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce and Industries (FKCCI) President Perikal Sundar said at least 75 per cent of the bigger companies, with 50 or more people, have outsourced staff. They usually get human resource from staffing companies. "There is a need to get their background verified by the local police. We welcome it,'' he said. He, however, noted that small companies with smaller workforce which do not have outsourced staff, do conduct background checks.

However, Sundar said there is no proper mechanism in the police department to check if a person has a criminal record, unlike the traffic police, who can detect offenders with the use of technology. "In Karnataka, especially in Bengaluru, many workers are from the North and Eastern parts of the country like Bihar, West Bengal, Jharkhand, Madhya Pradesh and other states. The process of background verification has to be fast and simple,'' he pointed out.

Sources in the Labour Department said that background verification is being given a thrust after the recent vandalism at the Wistron facility in Kolar. "Employing workers with suspect background can not only lead to damage of the company's property, but also creates a bad impression about the government as well as the company. We came up with this proposal to reduce such incidents in future,'' sources said.

Guidelines soon

The Labour Department is facing the heat from both the Karnataka Lokayukta and High Court over non-payment of wages, workers not being paid on time and other such issues. When asked about this, minister Shivaram Hebbar said they have constituted a committee which will frame guidelines for the benefit of workers. It may be recalled that in January the State Government had issued a circular to all employers to pay salaries of workers who had either tested positive for Covid-19 or were under quarantine.

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

SUPPORT TO MAKING TELECOM PRODUCTS GOOD IN THE SHORT RUN

The Union Cabinet on Wednesday launched a scheme to support investment in telecom networking products, which China and Taiwan are better known for, to attract foreign and local investors. The move is part of a larger scheme to promote Make in India by incentivising investment in some 10 sectors—some of them sunrise sectors like telecom and solar energy where India has aspirations of becoming a leading player, others like automotive and pharmaceuticals where we already have a strong foothold, and a few more that were dying out but we wish to save, like textiles.

While the idea of incentivising investment is laudable given the destruction of industry due to the pandemic, we have to remember that such schemes by nature must be temporary. Prolonged help to infant or sick industries does not help make them more competitive, but only condemns them into white elephants benefiting just a handful of businessmen who pocket state dole to make outdated products. One must also remember that incentives to a few sectors act as a tax on the rest of the economy. Moreover, mere investments in factories for new technology products cannot propel any nation to the forefront. Technological obsolesce in sunrise sectors is an issue that industrialists in even the most advanced economies have to face. The only way to stay ahead is to commit to Research in India along with Make in India. To depend on fickle transnationals to bring their latest research only to Indian shores and not to rivals where costs may be lower or incentives higher is to expect too much. We have seen how industry can move quickly. In the last century itself, textiles manufacturing has moved from Europe to India and China to nimbler players like Vietnam, Cambodia and Bangladesh.

In the 1980s, Sam Pitroda set up the autonomous Centre for Development of Telematics. It did some pioneering work in researching telecom products before we started ignoring the body and let it sink into a morass. If we wish to stay ahead, we will have to give birth to many such centres and continue funding them for many years. We have to always remember that a nation that under-funds research can never be a true industrial leader.

CURIOUS TIMING OF KIRAN BEDI'S EXIT

On Tuesday, Puducherry Congress workers burst crackers and CM V Narayanasamy, whose government is on the verge of collapse, distributed sweets, claiming credit for the removal of Lt Governor Kiran Bedi. The President then announced Telangana Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan would hold additional charge in Bedi's place.

Bedi, whose storied career as an IPS officer made her an inspiration to women across India, earned few fans during her tenure in Puducherry. From the get-go, the elected government headed by Narayanasamy clashed with the Lt Governor's office over everything from a scheme to provide free rice (she favoured a direct benefit transfer) to the implementation of a helmet rule. The CM accused her of running a parallel government and instructing officials directly. Based on this, the Congress has held multiple protests against her, and last week Narayansamy met the President demanding her removal. While her exit may appear a win for the Congress, her presence was also an issue around which the ruling party campaigned for five years. Narayanasamy has successfully blamed her interference for the stalling of every development scheme. Even local BJP workers were unhappy with her performance, believing the party was adversely impacted by the perceived mood against her. In fact, the renewed demand of political parties for statehood was built off perceived discontent of the public at her style of functioning.

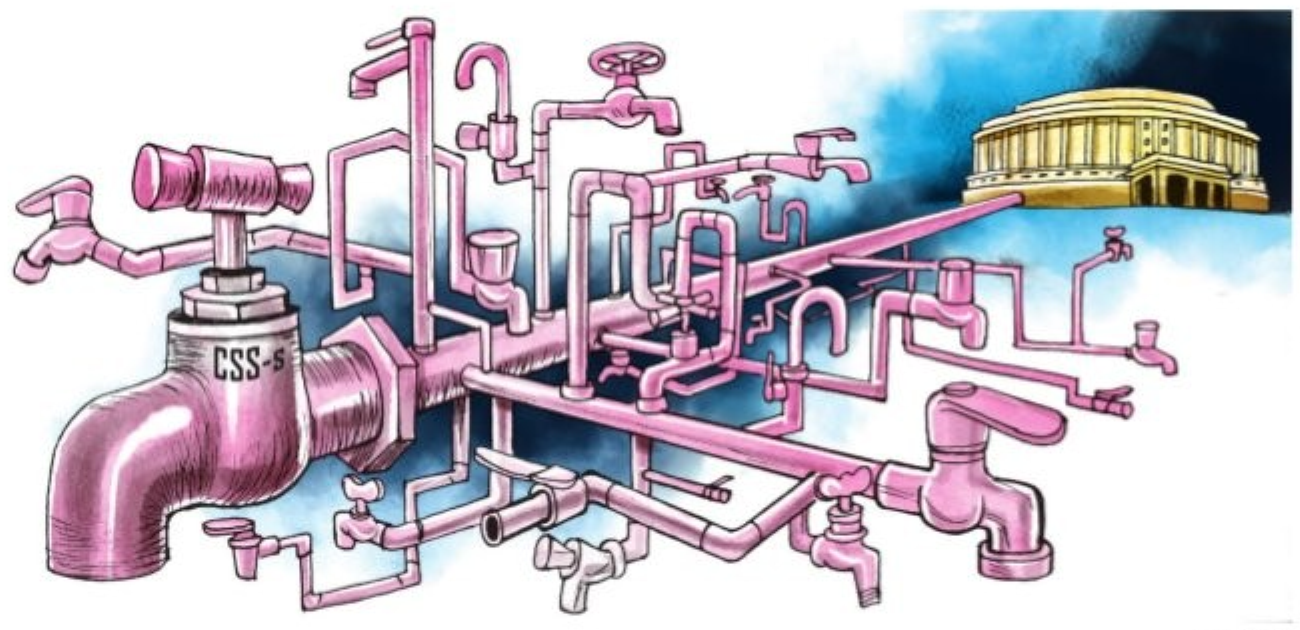
Interestingly, Bedi's removal came just months before the Assembly polls even as the Congress has lost at least four key leaders to the BJP. The ruling alliance's tally in the House is now equal to that of the Opposition and Soundararajan has asked the CM to prove his government's majority on February 22. Having inducted the heavyweight erstwhile Congress leaders, the BJP sees itself having a fighting chance in the UT. A cynic's view may be that in the event of a close poll verdict, the BJP might prefer a L-G more in tune with local politics—Soundararajan is a former Tamil BJP chief—to be in a position to weigh in. Whatever the cause for Bedi's removal, ironically it may only be Narayanasamy who misses her, especially during the upcoming campaign.

There are too many Centrally Sponsored Schemes. There can be no quarrel over the fact that this makes public expenditure inefficient and impossible to monitor

A REVIEW OF CENTRALLY SPONSORED SCHEMES

BIBEK DEBROY

Chairman, Economic Advisory Council to the PM. Views are personal



AMIT BANDRE

I have written about Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS-s) in the past. But given the Union Budget and 15th Finance Commission's report, the point is worth pursuing. In addition to the National Health Mission (NHM), the Budget announced a new CSS, the PM AtmaNirbhar Swasth Bharat Yojana. However, the speech also said, "On the recommendation of the Fifteenth Finance Commission, we have undertaken a detailed exercise to rationalise and bring down the number of Centrally Sponsored Schemes. This will enable consolidation of outlays for better impact." A quote from the 15th Finance Commission's (FC) report should follow, to explain what was said there. "Concerns arise because, even after some recent consolidation, India's specific-purpose transfers have been channelled through a large number of discretionary cost-sharing Centrally sponsored schemes (CSS) and non-matching Central sector schemes. They are not generally linked to outcomes, and are input- or process-based, and give rise to the usual concerns associated with such conditionalities. The concerns result, in part, from the large number of schemes, their concurrence with state responsibilities and their burdensome matching requirements, especially for states with lower fiscal and institutional capacity."

There are several distinct points. (1) There are too many CSS-s. From FC again, "Till recently, there seemed to be confusion about the number of existing CSS, indicating the complexity of the entire structure. The Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, has recently drawn up a list of 131 CSSs. The Union Budget 2020-21 shows that 15 of the 30 umbrella CSS account for about 90% of the total allocation under CSS. Many umbrella schemes have, within them, a number of small schemes, some of them with negligible allocations." Most people are familiar with restructuring of CSS-s done in 2016-17, following recommendations of a group of chief ministers. But this was restructuring, not rationalisation. In other words, schemes were clubbed under heads of umbrella schemes, as sub-schemes. The FC mentions a list of 131 if all schemes are counted. On the basis of Budget papers in successive Budgets, the figure is more like 165. There can be no quarrel that this is excessive and makes public expenditure inefficient and impossible to monitor.

(2) "Further, the medium-term framework for CSS and their sunset dates have been made co-terminus with Finance Commission cycles." Therefore, with the 15th FC report having been submitted, this is the right time to review CSS-s.

(3) "It is important to gradually stop the funding for those CSS and their subcomponents which have either outlived their utility or have insignificant budgetary outlays not commensurate to a national programme. There should also be a minimum threshold funding size for the approval of a CSS. There are two pre-conditions for carrying out this task. The first is to fix a threshold amount of annual appropriation below which the funding for a CSS-s may be stopped. Below the stipulated threshold, the administrating department should justify the need for the continuity of the scheme." Notice that FC has two separate arguments here. First, if a scheme has little funding, below a threshold, it has limited utility and does not deserve to be a national programme. That argument applies to state-level schemes too, which states can fund out of their own resources, independent of the Union government. What's an appropriate threshold? In 2011, the B.K. Chaturvedi Committee, set up to recommend rationalisation of CSS-s, suggested an annual expenditure threshold of ₹100 crore. But the Chaturvedi Committee also made references to an earlier Planning Commission Committee, the Arvind Varma Committee. That had recommended an annual threshold of ₹300 crores. With inflation, that threshold should be higher now, perhaps ₹500 crore.

Shouldn't we treat it as axiomatic that there shouldn't be a CSS in something on the State List? If an item is on the Union List, shouldn't it be a Central Sector scheme instead?

(4) One feels the FC has been a bit too polite and diplomatic. Below a threshold, regardless of what a department feels, there are no reasons to continue with a CSS. Else, because every department has a proprietary view about every scheme it administers, there is a reluctance to let go, which is the primary reason behind the continued existence of so many CSS-s. But yes, there needs to be a ZBB (zero-based budgeting) of all CSS-s. Since some CSS-s have legislative backing and since state governments are involved, who does the ZBB exercise and how does this gain political acceptance?

(5) There is a Seventh Schedule to the Constitution. Shouldn't we treat it as axiomatic that there shouldn't be a CSS in something on the State List? Devolution received by states through FC is meant for such items. If an item is on the Union List, shouldn't it be a Central Sector scheme, with no matching grant from states? If it is an item on the Concurrent List, what should the formula be for matching? How can flexibility be given to states, such as for splicing a CSS with a state-level scheme? How does one measure the impact of such CSS-s, beyond mechanical audit requirements? There are possible lessons from health, which is squarely in the State List, but on which there are CSS-s. Any ZBB of CSS-s involves prioritisation of public resources and deciding at what level these must be spent. While there can be a debate about which sector should claim public resources, most people will mention health, though defence, internal security, education and infrastructure will also be listed. With health squarely in the state list, a review of CSS-s implicitly indicates a review of the Seventh Schedule, inherited from the colonial Government of India Act of 1935.

TRIPURA CM'S REMARK ONLY HELPS ANTI-INDIA GROUPS

N SATHIYA MOORTHY

Distinguished Fellow & Head, Chennai Initiative, Observer Research Foundation

At a time when a vocal section in the West is up in arms against India on the allegations of multiple human rights violations in the country, the farmers' agitation being the latest, and friendship in the immediate neighbourhood is suspect in some cases, Tripura's BJP Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb has added a new feather to his cap. He named Union Home Minister Amit Shah and said that the latter had plans to establish BJP governments in Nepal and Sri Lanka.

Deb is not new to controversies. Only last year, he stirred a controversy within the country on regional and linguistic lines by claiming that Punjabis and Haryanvis had the physical strength, but did not have the brains of Bengalis. On another occasion, he shocked the scientific community, nearer home and overseas, claiming that satellites were used in the Mahabharata war.

Interestingly, the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), Amit Shah and his Home Ministry, and Deb himself have not denied or distanced themselves from the comments. In nations where India's intentions still remain suspect despite Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 'Neighbourhood First' policy and gracious vaccine diplomacy, critics of Indian hegemony are bound to raise their hackles. They have got one more missile to fire at India, at a time of their choice.

Thankfully, Sri Lanka's Cabinet spokesperson, Udaya Gammanpilla, has since made light of Deb's comment, arguing that they would react if Amit Shah were to say it himself. Obviously, the ruling Rajapaksas do not want more of India, or anti-India, on their hands after the controversial cancellation of the three-nation memorandum of cooperation (MoC), also involving Japan, for the Eastern Container Terminal (ECT) in Colombo Port. Colombo needs New Delhi in many ways, more so now at the UNHRC. Commencing now, the UN affiliate is to debate and vote on allegations of war crimes in Sri Lanka, and the way forward for the international community.

Sri Lanka's Election Commission Chairman Nimal Punchihewa seems to have eased the situation even more. He has said that the nation's Constitution and laws do not provide for the same. "Any Sri Lankan political party or group is permitted to have external links with any party or group overseas. But our electoral laws do not permit overseas political parties to work here," the local media has quoted the EC chief as saying.

This may have saved the day for now, but anti-India elements in the country are bound to rake up the issue as and when they so desire. For instance, the left-leaning JVP, which is a moderate shade of its once militant self, still retains Indian hegemony as the third of the five 'classes' conducted for cadres by slain party founder Rohana Wijewera. In turn, this could pressure the Rajapaksas—or anyone in their place—to over-react equally, if not more.

In nations where India's intentions still remain suspect despite Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 'Neighbourhood First' policy and gracious vaccine diplomacy, critics of Indian hegemony are bound to raise their hackles. They have now got one more missile to fire at India, at a time of their choice

Leftists themselves, the Rajapaksas especially would come under greater pressure from what is now a peripheral group. The parallel to the situation in India, whether it concerns the political Right, Left or the Dravidian Tamil polity, cannot be missed. One then cannot complain of the ruling class in Colombo—or, for that matter, Nepal, where again anti-Indianness is in the veins of many. As it is in every neighbouring country, where the very size of India that is Bharat is as much fear-inducing as it is awe-inspiring.

Anti-minority, pro-Hindutva: Deb's message, or unthinking mischief if it could be called so, helps anti-India groups—not just in the neighbourhood. Sure enough, someone in some Western government office(s) is going to file away Deb's comments, for possible use in the future, if and when it comes to that—say, possibly at the UNHRC or other international fora of the kind.

In the ocean neighbourhood, for instance, the Sri Lankan Tamils and upcountry Tamils (estate Tamils)—a majority of them (alone) are Hindus—are bound to come under the scanner of the increasing ranks of Sinhala-Buddhist majoritarian groups. Already there are suspicions in these circles about the origin of certain pro-Hindu posters and posturing by some Tamil individuals and groups, of and on, especially over the past few years. On the issue of ethnicity and language, the Tamils in the island nation are already under tremendous pressure from their government and the Sinhala-Buddhist hardliners.

Of India's seven immediate neighbours, four (Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Maldives and Pakistan) have a Muslim majority. Sri Lanka's Constitution describes the nation as Buddhist. The Maldivian Constitution grants citizenship only to Sunni Muslims. Bhutan and Nepal, truth be acknowledged, have had their own sects, tribes and gods. The rise of Communists in Nepal over the past decades has belied claims in India of the former being the only Hindu nation/ kingdom in the world.

The Hindutva brigade in this country can claim that if there are Muslim neighbours that are unapologetic about some of them being anti-Hindu, India too can pay back the compliment. That is easier said than done, especially when Prime Minister Modi keeps reiterating the Bharatiya dictum, vasudeva kutumbakam (in Sanskrit) and yaadum oore, yavarum kelir (Tamil), in international venue after international venue—and when the 21st century Indian dream is to become a superpower after winning over all neighbours as friends.

Fuel prices hurt economy

Retail prices of petrol and diesel have hit record highs. Following the huge disruption created by Covid-19, the increasing fuel prices are a threat to the recovery of the country's economy.

Memorisation & experience

I agree with the views in Transform edu, make students love learning (Feb 18). Learning was possible even before writing became widespread. The four steps adopted were listening (sravana), memorisation (manana), deep understanding (nidhidhyasana) and vision (darsana). For instance, memorisation of Thirukkural couplets helped because in later stages of life, the meanings of these verses were understood on account of experience.

Abuse in high places too

This is with reference to Delhi court chucks Akbar's defamation suit against Ramani (Feb 18). The MeToo movement exposed that sexual abuse and harassment were happening covertly in high places too. The verdict is a morale booster for victims.
K Jayanthi, Chennai

Welcome verdict

The court has done well to trash the defamation case filed by former Union Minister M J Akbar against journalist Priya Ramani for her tweets accusing him of sexual harassment. The court also accepted Ramani's contention that Akbar is not a man of stellar reputation based on her testimony and that of senior journalist Ghazala Wahab. Women all over the country will celebrate the verdict.

Nature of harassment

I am happy that the court has understood the nature of sexual harassment and its implications for victims. The verdict will help other women in the fight for their rights.

Traffic violations cost lives

Your editorial The unabating scourge of road accidents (Feb 18) has rightly pointed out that strict enforcement of traffic rules is the need of the hour. Apart from problems in helmet and seat belt usage, there is rampant signal jumping, frequent changing of lanes, etc. Hapless pedestrians crossing roads face a lot of risk and many have lost their lives or have been left permanently disabled due to undisciplined driving.

Close relatives debarred too

This is with reference to Democracy in Indian history, Uthiramerur and beyond (Feb 18). Strict adherence to norms was necessary to participate in the democratic process in the bygone era as seen from the inscriptions in Uthiramerur and elsewhere. It is interesting to note that people and even their close relatives were not allowed to contest in case of crimes such as non-clearance of debts.

Proper checks & balances

Kudos to the author for highlighting the ancient wisdom that has been recorded in the inscriptions of Manur and Tirunindravur. When democracy was unheard of in most places in the world, our ancestors practised the system with proper checks and balances.

Amend Sec 194A of I-T Act

Investors lose some interim interest and the government loses some tax on cumulative deposits (CD) if tax is deducted before sending the interim interest to the CD Account. This appears to be a misinterpretation of Sec 194A of the Income Tax Act and reduces the compounding ability of CD to earn full compound interest. Taxing interest while compounding is wrong. The public must ask the Union finance minister to amend Sec 194A accordingly to make this clear.

No role in leaking Disha's WhatsApp chats: Police

Delhi HC issues notices on plea seeking to restrain cops and media

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

Activists demand the release of Disha Ravi, who was arrested in connection with the Google toolkit case, in Thane on Thursday | PTI

THE Delhi Police on Thursday denied leaking any information to the media in connection with the probe against Bengaluru student and climate activist Disha Ravi in the farmer protest toolkit case.

Appearing for police, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta told the Delhi High Court that an affidavit would be filed on Friday. A bench of Justice Prathiba M Singh, however, issued notices to the News Broadcasters Standards Association (NBSA) and three news channels on Disha's petition seeking an order restraining the police from leaking investigation material accessed as part of the probe.

The court said the prayer required consideration and posted the matter for hearing on Friday.

Claiming that her arrest on February 13 was "wholly unlawfully and without basis", Disha alleged "media trial" against her and said she was being "viscerally attacked" by police and several media houses. Senior advocate Akhil Sibal, appearing for Disha, argued that police had seized her phone and was behind the leakage of information. The plea claimed only police had access to the contents of Disha's private conversations and any leak of the same is a violation of the petitioner's "dignity, reputation and fundamental right to privacy, guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution".

> The illegal actions and omissions, on part of the respondents, have irrevocably violated the petitioner's fundamental right to privacy, her right to reputation, her dignity... — Disha Ravi's petition

Investigative matters leaked to the media are "prejudicial" and "grossly violative of her right to a fair trial and presumption of innocence", the petition stated.

The petitioner sought to restrain the media from publishing the contents or extracts of any private chats, including those on WhatsApp, between her and 'third parties'. The publication/broadcast of the chats by various media houses was a violation of the provisions of the Cable Televisions Networks (Regulation) Act, the Programme Code and the Uplinking and Downlinking Guidelines, it contended.

According to Ravi, the police pre-judged her guilt and in the present circumstances, it was "highly likely" that the public will perceive the news items "as being conclusive as to the guilt of the petitioner".

RT-PCR test must for foreign arrivals

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TESTS will be mandatory on arrival for passengers coming from the UK, Europe and the Middle East, with the Centre issuing new guidelines for international flight arrivals after mutant variants of Covid from South Africa and Brazil were detected in India.

The new SOP will come into effect from February 22.

The latest guidelines cover all international travellers coming or transiting through flights originating in the UK, Europe and the Middle East. Though no new strain has been detected in the Middle East, travellers from Brazil and South Africa transit through the region to reach India as there are no direct flights to the two countries.

The government has suspended international scheduled flights until February 28. Overseas flights are currently operated as per air bubble agreements with various countries. "All international travellers arriving in India will have to present a negative RT-PCR test, conducted not more than 72 hours before undertaking the journey," said the guidelines.

For travellers coming from destinations other than the UK, Europe and the Middle East, this condition will be waived if they are travelling due to exigent circumstances, it said.

All the airlines were asked to segregate passengers originating from the UK, Europe and the Middle East to facilitate authorities in following due protocol. Such passengers will mandatorily be subjected to a self-paid confirmatory molecular test, the Health ministry said.

The advisory added that in case any person arriving from these countries tests Covid positive, samples will be taken for genome sequencing of the strain. If they are found to be infected with a variant strain, their treatment will be done in separate isolation as per the protocol.

India gets 3rd most Covid jabs

India is now third in Covid vaccinations after the US and the UK with the number of people who have received the first shots against coronavirus crossing 94 lakh mark. The daily Covid positivity rate has seen a constant decline in the last seven days —it has now dropped from 1.89% on February 1 to 1.69% on Thursday.

Yavatmal shut down for 10 days; strict rules in Mumbai

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AS Covid cases are speedily rising in Maharashtra, the authorities in Mumbai and elsewhere clamped down with fresh safety measures on Thursday.

The administration in eastern Maharashtra's Yavatmal district ordered a 10-day lockdown from Thursday night. Similarly, Amravati will have a weekend lockdown from 8 pm on Saturday to 7 am on Monday.

Maharashtra on Thursday reported 5,427 Covid cases, a sizable number of them coming from Akola and Nagpur divisions. Officials said there is an almost 64 per cent jump in Covid cases in last 18 days in Maharashtra.

"People should follow the pandemic norms strictly... We have put a limit of 50 people for wedding functions, but people are not following it," asked Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar.

Amravati, Akola and Yavatmal are especially in the radar due to the high number of Covid cases.

In Mumbai, the Brihanmumbai Municipal corporation has issued strict guidelines. Anyone found flouting the guidelines will face cases. Additionally, any building in Mumbai with more than five active cases of Covid will be sealed.

Face mask is mandatory when people are out on the roads, the civic body said.

Orders to raid marriage halls, clubs, restaurants etc. to check Covid appropriate behaviour were also issued by the municipal corporation.

Conspiracy against Gogoi cannot be ruled out: SC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday closed the suo motu proceedings initiated in the sexual harassment case against former Chief Justice of India (CJI) Ranjan Gogoi.

The court had registered the case back in 2019 on Solicitor General Tushar Mehta's request to examine the alleged conspiracy against the judiciary in the wake of sexual harassment allegations that had surfaced against Gogoi.

The possibility of a conspiracy could not be ruled out, the top court said, adding it could be linked to Justice Gogoi's decisions, including his views on the NRC. However, the case was being closed as nearly two years had passed and the possibility of retrieving electronic records was very little, it said.

The court made the decision based on the report of former Justice AK Patnaik, who was tasked with probing a larger conspiracy in the allegations against Gogoi and whether middlemen and fixers working with disgruntled court officials were trying to fix judges.

The Patnaik panel was not able to get electronic records to probe the conspiracy to frame the ex-CJI, the bench said.

The court said since the in-house inquiry committee had also gone into the merit of sexual harassment charges, no purpose would be served in continuing the suo motu proceedings. "We are of the view no true purpose would be served. Pleadings are closed and suo motu disposed of. The report be put in sealed cover," the court said, while disposing of the case.

NITI meet to focus on agriculture

New Delhi: Agriculture tops the agenda of the sixth Governing Council meeting of the Niti Aayog on Saturday. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will chair the meeting being held through virtual conference which is likely to be attended by all the chief ministers. The Governing Council meeting wasn't held last year on account of the Covid-19 pandemic. "The agenda of the meeting includes deliberations on agriculture, infrastructure, manufacturing, human resource development, service delivery at grassroots level and health and nutrition," the think tank in a media statement said on Thursday.

Expert teams reach spot as efforts to drain lake pick up in U'khand

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

EFFORTS to drain out the lake that has formed 8 km upstream from Raini village in Chamoli district of Uttarakhand after February 7 flash floods are on.

A team of ITBP and DRDO has reached the spot and will be camping there to assess the ground situation and the ways to drain the lake safely. Om Prakash, chief secretary of Uttarakhand said, "The teams of experts, scientists and ITBP are on the ground to assess the situation about the lake. We will soon decide the course of action based on their report."

The water is draining through three streams which have formed through rubble which is acting as a dam.

The search operations also continue, with total 61 bodies recovered till date while 143 people are still missing. Nilesh Anand Bharney, in-charge of State Police Disaster Control Room, said two bodies were recovered from the Tapovan tunnel and one from Raini village on Thursday.

Meanwhile, several groups and outfits have come up with various demands in the wake of the flash floods.

Shivanand Saraswati, founder of Haridwar-based Matri Sadan, has announced to go on fast-unto-death from February 23 against hydropower plants in Uttarakhand. A group of social workers have urged the government to register a case of murder and criminal negligence against NTPC, to order a probe headed by a retired high court or SC judge, and provide ₹50 lakh as compensation and permanent job for one member of each of the aggrieved families.

BJP to draw on experience of veterans in Assembly elections

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE BJP national office bearers meeting on Sunday in the national capital will aim to capitalise on party's resources for the upcoming polls in Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Puducherry, Assam and West Bengal.

The BJP is gearing up to make full use of the election veterans from the party ranks. The BJP leaders maintain that the rising petrol and diesel prices along with the farmers' agitation could pose serious challenges for the party in the state polls.

On Sunday, BJP chief JP Nadda will preside over the national office bearer's meeting in which the chiefs of the state units and organisational secretaries were invited. BJP national general secretary Arun Singh, in a letter to the state chiefs, has called for reports on organisational issues. "The state elections are very crucial for the BJP because they will set the tone for big elections in the BJP ruled Uttar Pradesh, Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand. Also, the BJP's Mission South will be tested," said a senior BJP functionary.

Nadda is likely to call upon the election veterans from Bihar, Jharkhand, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh to camp in Assam and Bengal. On the same line, the BJP poll veterans from Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and Maharashtra will be asked to camp in Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Puducherry.

"The BJP has a large group of leaders who have rich experiences in managing elections at the polling booth levels. Such leaders are well acquainted with the demography of the bound states," said another BJP functionary.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah are likely to ask the BJP leaders to take the "pro-people" budget proposals and achievements to the electorate. The senior leaders are also likely to call upon the state functionaries to be more proactive in countering the opposition campaign against the farm laws.

Holy cow! NRIs log in for online bovine test

RICHA SHARMA @ New Delhi

THE cow has come to be recognised as the official animal of great academic curiosity. Nearly 5 lakh candidates have registered to take the Kamdhenu Gau Vigyan exam that will be conducted by the Centre's cow welfare body on February 25.

There has been an overwhelming response from Indians living abroad and even foreigners. A record number of NRIs and foreigners from 51 countries and applicants from almost all districts of the country have registered for the exam. Nearly one lakh NRIs have registered to take the test while at least 15% overseas applicants include foreign nationals.

The Rashtriya Kamdhenu Aayog (RKA), the organising authority, said registrations have picked up in the last two-three days with at least 5,000 people enrolling per hour. The registration deadline was to end on Thursday, but has now been extended till Saturday. A mock exam will be conducted on Sunday.

According to the registration data by RKA, around 4.9 lakh people have registered for the exam, with most registrations coming from children up to 8th standard. The Aayog has reached out to the University Grants Commission (UGC), Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan and the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) to encourage students to enrol.

"We were expecting at least 1% of our population to register for the exam, but the response has been lukewarm. The registration climbed steeply after we reached out to various educational bodies," said an RKA official.

The purpose of the exam is to spread awareness about the unexplored potential and business opportunities the cow can offer. It will be an hour-long online exam to be conducted throughout the country on the same day, with cash rewards and certificates to applicants.

The government constituted RKA on February 21, 2019. It is a high-powered permanent apex advisory body with a mandate to help the central government to develop appropriate programmes for conservation, sustainable development and genetic upgrading of indigenous breeds of cows.

The Aayog has been mandated to review existing laws and policies. It can also suggest measures for optimum economic utilisation of the bovine wealth for enhanced production and productivity, leading to higher farm income and better quality of life for dairy farmers.

Correcting the historical negligence of Assam: PM

Modi cites river project as evidence of govt's eagerness to change

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said the Centre is correcting the historical mistake of neglecting Assam through various development initiatives.

Virtually launching Mahabahu-Brahmaputra, a conglomerate of multi-modal water connectivity projects, Modi said: "(Before Independence) Assam was one of the states generating highest revenues. Those days, petroleum products and tea used to reach the Chittagong port (in Bangladesh) and Kolkata via Brahmaputra, Padma and Meghna rivers and the railway. Connectivity was the reason behind Assam's prosperity. But after Independence, when this infrastructure was supposed to be modernized, it was left to its fate."

He said attention was not paid to waterways and blamed it on negligence. Adding that late PM Atal Bihari Vajpayee had started correcting this mistakes, Modi said Assam's development is the Centre's priority. "Work which should have been done earlier for connectivity through the Brahmaputra did not happen. Connectivity always remained a challenge. Now, work is being expedited. Over the past few years, the double engines of Assam and Central governments tried to reduce the geographical and cultural distances. The physical and cultural integrity of Assam and Northeast was strengthened. Bhupen Hazarika Setu, Bogibeel Bridge, Saraighat Bridge or others, many bridges have eased the life of Assam. They strengthened India's security and provided great convenience to the soldiers," Modi said.

Work which should have been done earlier for connectivity through the Brahmaputra did not happen. Connectivity always remained a challenge. Now, work is being expedited.

Narendra Modi, Prime Minister

Stating that work on inland waterways will have a major impact on Assam and the Northeast, he said an agreement was signed with Bangladesh recently to improve water connectivity. "Work is underway on the India-Bangladesh protocol route across river Hooghly to connect river Brahmaputra and Barak. Northeast's dependence of the region on the narrow connecting part would be reduced."

He said Jogighopa IWT Terminal will strengthen an alternative route to connect Assam with Haldia port, adding that Bhutan and Bangladesh cargoes and cargoes at Jogighopa Multi-Modal Logistics Park will get facilities for movement along the Brahmaputra.

CAA to protect Hindus, says Biswa Sarma

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Guwahati

BACKING the Centre's decision to protect Hindu immigrants through the Citizenship (Amendment) Act (CAA), Assam minister Himanta Biswa Sarma asked critics of the rule to view India as a civilisation that started 6,000 years ago.

"India didn't start in 1947 but 6,000 years ago. People who believe India started in 1947, find a difference between Assamese and Hindus/Indians. Those who believe India started 6,000 years ago, don't see that difference. That is the fundamental point of view. We want to fight the upcoming (Assembly) elections on that agenda," Sarma said at the release of his fourth book titled Eta Xopunor Pom Khedi (Chasing a Dream).

Calling himself a Hindu first, he said: "If you believe in Sanatani dharma and are a Hindu, you will accommodate everyone who is not a threat. I am a Hindu and my duty is to strike a balance between the interests of Hinduism and the interests of Assam. When you see the final outcome of the CAA or its rules, you will see a fine balance between Hindu interests and the interests of Assam."

Amit Shah, other BJP leaders have lunch at a fisherman's house in South 24 Parganas; Mamata Banerjee addresses a rally | PTI

CONTINUING his attack on West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee over a number of issues including not allowing Hindu religious festivals to political violence claiming lives BJP workers, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Thursday made a slew of promises aimed at wooing the voters. These included facilities for fisherman and government jobs for women.

Addressing a rally at Namkhana in South 24 Parganas, Shah said if the BJP comes to power, a ministry will be set up for fishermen and 33 per cent of government jobs will be reserved for women. "Fishermen have to bribe Trinamool Congress's musclemen to venture into the sea. After overthrowing the TMC government, their plight will not exist. We will set up a dedicated ministry for the betterment of fishermen. Namkhana will become a district and the area will be converted into an integrated fishery zone," Shah said.

He also announced a beneficiary scheme, which will be implemented if BJP rules the state. "Like the scheme for farmers, fishermen will get an assistance of ₹6,000 every year and the sum will be credited to their bank accounts," he said.

The delta region of the district has a sizable number of people who depend on fishing for a livelihood. To win their support, Shah had lunch at the house of a fisherman.

Eyeing consolidation of Hindu votes, Shah accused Mamata of not allowing festivals like Durga Puja and Saraswati Puja. "Shouldn't Durga Puja take place in West Bengal? Court's permission is needed for that. Shouldn't Saraswati Puja take place here? She (Mamata) has stopped it. Didi, Bengal knows you stopped Saraswati pujan in schools."

Shah flagged off the fifth and final Parivartan Yatra from Namkhana. In the morning, he visited Bharat Sevashram Sangha in Kolkata and went to Kapil Muni Ashram in Gangasagar.

Mamata terms bomb attack on minister 'big conspiracy'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolkata

CHIEF Minister Mamata Banerjee on Thursday described the attack on Minister of State for Labour Zakir Hossain as a deliberate and planned act to kill. Hossain was injured by a crude bomb hurled at him at a railway station in the district of Murshidabad on Wednesday night. He is recovering in a Kolkata hospital.

An investigation team comprising multiple state agencies led by the ADG of CID has been formed probe the incident.

Calling this a 'conspiracy', Mamata said there were no railway police personnel at the station. She also said that another political party was trying to woo Hossain, without naming BJP. "I have gathered information from locals which suggests the explosion was triggered from a distance. This is a conspiracy. It is surprising that the railway had no information that a minister was boarding a train from the station. Railway authorities are taking the incident lightly,'' said Mamata after visiting Hossain at the hospital.

Mystery shrouds death of two Dalit minors in Unnao, third critical

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

TWO Dalit girls died while their sister was battling for life at a Kanpur hospital after they were found unconscious, with their hands tied, on their farm in Uttar Pradesh's Unnao district on Wednesday.

Police said the three girls were rushed to a community health centre (CHC), where two — aged 13 and 15 — of them were declared dead on arrival. The third girl, aged 17, was referred to the Regency Hospital in Kanpur, where she remains on life support. Regency Hospital official Paramjit Arora said: "On the basis of her medical checkup and condition, the doctors have called it a suspected case of poisoning. No external injury has been found on her body. Her condition is stable."

Opp slams Yogi govt over death of Dalit sisters in Unnao

LUCKNOW: Opposition parties including Congress, Samajwadi Party, BSP and Bhim Army on Thursday attacked the Uttar Pradesh after two minor Dalit girls were found dead in Unnao and a third was admitted to hospital. Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath has asked the state DGP to monitor the investigation and submit a report. He also told authorities to provide free treatment to the girl from the CM's Relief Fund. BSP chief Mayawati also expressed concern over the incident and demanded a high-level probe into it.

Meanwhile, the autopsy report of the two girls, too, ruled out any physical or sexual assault and suggested poisoning as the cause of death. A three-doctor panel, which conducted the postmortem examination, has sent the samples of the girls' viscera for chemical examination.

According to Unnao superintendent of police (SP) Anand Kulkarni, the three girls had left their home around 3 pm on Wednesday to gather fodder. When they did not return till 9:30 pm, the family launched a search. The searchers found the girls lying unconscious in the field, their hands tied and frothing from their mouths. Their limbs were tied with a dupatta belonging to one of the girls.

Six teams have been formed to investigate the case, the SP said. The district magistrate has informed the Kanpur hospital that government will bear the expenses of the girl's treatment.

Mercy plea by woman death convict's son

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD Taj was born in jail to Shabnam, on death row for hacking seven members of her family in Amroha on April 14, 2008. The boy has urged President Ram Nath Kovind to grant mercy to his mother, pleading for forgiveness on her behalf.

Shabnam would be the first woman convict to be sent to the gallows since Independence.

In a last-ditch attempt to save his convicted mother, Taj has appealed to the President to review the mercy petition. Former President Pranab Mukherjee had rejected Shabnam's mercy petition after the Supreme Court upheld her death sentences in 2015, paving the way for her execution along with her lover Salim.

Shabnam was two-month pregnant when she committed the gruesome crime and axed seven of her family members in connivance with Salim because the family was opposed to her relationship with him.

Taj was born in Moradabad Jail in 2008 and raised by Shabnam's friend Usman Saifi.

Associate members give suggestions to delimitation panel

New Delhi: Two associate members from J&K told the Delimitation Commission on Thursday that special attention be given to the difficult terrain while carrying out the delimitation exercise in the UT. The commission, headed by former SC judge Ranjana Prakash Desai, sought suggestions from the associate members on the process of delimitation of the UT. The Lok Sabha speaker had last year named Farooq Abdullah, Mohammad Akbar Lone, Hasnain Masoodi, Jugal Kishore Sharma and Union minister Jitendra Singh as the panel's associate members from J&K . Associate members are lawmakers from their respective states who assist the delimitation panel in redrawing parliamentary and assembly constituencies.

Dhaba owner says gun attack on son not triggered by domicile certificate issue

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

A day after militants shot at the son of a popular dhaba owner in Srinagar, Ramesh Kumar Mehra, he said the attack was not linked to the domicile certificate issue as the family is a resident of the erstwhile J&K state. He has demanded a thorough probe into the attack.

Mehra, owner of Krishna Dhaba, said he has been running it at Durga Nag area of Dalgate in Srinagar and never faced any threat during three decades of militancy in J&K.

Akash Mehra, 22, was shot at by militants at the food joint when it was packed with customers on Wednesday evening.

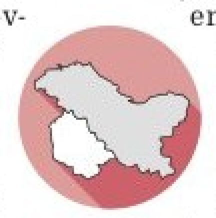
Ramesh said they had no enmity with anybody and were living amicably in the Valley.

Scrapping of Article 370 ended sufferings: L-G

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Srinagar

YEARS of suffering of the people of J&K ended on August 5, 2019, when its special status granted by Article 370 was abrogated, Lt-Governor Manoj Sinha told the foreign diplomats who met him on the second day of their-two-visit.

"Efforts of the PM ushered the UT into a new era, which has brought about socio-economic development and empowerment of the people," Sinha told the 24 foreign envoys on the political, security and economic situation in J&K.



He informed the envoys that the Modi government had drawn up excellent ideas and initiatives of industrialisation even in far-flung areas so that jobs could be created for youth. He said the government is investing more than ever before in infrastructure, industries, education, healthcare, skill development, sustainable livelihood. Terming militancy as the biggest enemy of humankind, Sinha said: "Despite attempts by our neighbour to destabilise the security situation and trigger social disharmony, the government remains resolute.

Blow for LJP as 208 leaders join JD(U)

PATNA: The Chirag Paswan-headed Lok Janshakti Party (LJP) suffered a jolt on Thursday when 208 leaders, including former general secretary Keshav Singh, reposed trust in the leadership of CM Nitish Kumar and joined the ruling JD(U). Branding LJP a party that bellongs to a particular family', Singh accused Paswan of taking decisions acting in an arbitrary manner instead of working in the larger interest of the state and party.

Camp organised for registration of dogs

The Jaipur Municipal Corporation organised a two-day camp for registration of dogs. Though the actual number of canines is over 50,000 in the Pink City, only 280 dogs were registered during the two-day camp organised by the JMC and an NGO Protection of Animal and Welfare Society (PAWS). This initiative aimed to motivate people to get their dogs registered on the occasion of Valentine's Day and the idea behind the move was to ask people 'to care for your pets as you do for your lover.' Registration of dogs is a must in the municipal corporation but most residents are not aware of this rule.

Cops celebrate Valentine Week on social media

In a unique initiative, the Rajasthan Police celebrated 'Valentine Week' by spreading a range of special messages on social media. The special week began with Rose Day and ended on the Valentine's Day on February 14. On each day of the Valentine's Week, the police delivered special messages through Facebook and Twitter. For instance, on the 'Propose Day' the police used a range of memes of Bollywood stars to respect women's consent and accept that "no means no" in case a girl/woman says no to a proposal. Similarly, on 'Chocolate Day', the message was built on an anti-tobacco theme and advised to offer chocolates as a better alternative to tobacco. Another special message was delivered on 'Promise Day' when people of the state were encouraged to show their love for nature and plant saplings in nearby areas.

Work before 'son' shine for role model mayor

Soumya Gurjar, the young Mayor of Jaipur Municipal Corporation, has become a role model for her commitment to work. Soumya became a mother for the second time last Thursday, but till eight hours before she giving birth, Soumya kept working and meeting officials on cleaning arrangements. Such was her zeal for work that Soumya remained busy with field work all through Wednesday and did not let anyone know that she was in labour. But early on Thursday morning, she was blessed with a son.

Luxury Car Rally to revive tourism industry

It was a tryst with metal beauties for the people of Jodhpur, as 22 super cars costing over ₹100 crore hit the streets. Aimed at reviving the tourism industry in Rajasthan, which has taken a big hit over the last many months due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the car rally took off from the famous Umaid Bhawan Palace, the luxury hotel that was once the residence of former royals. The fleet of luxury cars included Mercedes, Lamborghini, BMW, Porsche and several other expensive models. A majority of these cars were worth more than ₹2 crore. The car rally was the initiative of luxury car owners, who have plans to hold such events in cities across the country in the near future.

Deadly winter storm heads to US east coast

WASHINGTON

A historic winter weather system that brought bitter, record-busting cold to much of the southern and central United States was pushing up the East Coast on Thursday, with forecasters warning of heavy snowfall and dangerous, icy buildups in the coming days.

The frigid blast has over the past week seen Arctic cold envelope a US heartland unfamiliar with such extremes, leaving dozens of dead in its wake and millions of people in oil-rich Texas without power.

The National Weather Service (NWS) said a major winter storm would impact an area stretching from Virginia up to the Northeast.

"The swath of heaviest snowfall is forecast to occur from the Appalachians of Virginia and West Virginia to northern Maryland and southern Pennsylvania," the NWS said, warning of treacherous travel conditions. US President Joe Biden was forced to postpone until Friday a visit to the Pfizer Covid-19 vaccine manufacturing site in Kalamazoo, Michigan while federal government offices in Washington were closed Thursday.

Jeff Zients, the White House Coronavirus Response Coordinator, said the adverse weather was impacting delivery and distribution of Covid-19 vaccines in many parts of the US.

Power was gradually being restored but hundreds of thousands of households remained without electricity early Thursday across Texas, the oil and gas capital of the US. According to PowerOutage.US, 6,74,000 customers in Texas were still without power by Thursday morning, the only one of the US's 48 continental states to have its own independent power grid. Compounding the misery, thousands of Houston residents were suffering from both power outages and a loss of water pressure.

Texans told to boil tap water

Nearly seven million Texans were being advised to boil tap water before drinking it or using it for cooking, said Toby Baker, who heads the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, adding that nearly 2,64,000 people were impacted by non-operational water systems. Agencies

FB blocks news in Aus over push for profit sharing

Blacks out posts by credible news outlets, leaves sources of misinformation untouched

BRISBANE

FACEBOOK on Thursday imposed a news blackout in Australia in response to Prime Minister Scott Morrison's push to make tech giants share revenue with Australian media houses whose contents they profit from.

The US social media giant immediately drew scorn with critics calling its action "arrogant" and "unconscionable"

From early on Thursday, Australians were unable to post links to news articles or view the Facebook pages of local and international media houses, while users logged in overseas could not view Australian news pages.

"Facebook's actions were unnecessary, they were heavy-handed, and they will damage its reputation here in Australia," said the country's Treasurer Josh Frydenberg.

Human Rights Watch Australia director Elaine Pearson described the move—which has also impacted Indigenous community pages—as an "alarming and dangerous turn of events".

"Cutting off access to vital information to an entire country in the dead of the night is unconscionable," she said. Others warned that Facebook was purging official information and news produced by credible journalists from the site, while leaving dangerous misinformation largely unchecked.

Several Facebook pages that regularly promote misinformation and conspiracy theories were unaffected by the ban.

Health Minister Greg Hunt said that were especially dangerous days before the country starts rolling out its coronavirus vaccines. "I would say again to Facebook... Forget the money, start growing up and making sure that you are about community and safety above all else," he said.

Facebook's hardball response contrasted with Google, which in recent days has brokered deals with media groups, including one with Rupert Murdoch's News Corp.

News Corp was the last major private media company to make a deal and was instrumental in pushing the conservative Australian government to tackle the tech giants.

The Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance said the professional journalists it represents acted as a check on the spread of misinformation before their work was barred from Facebook feeds. "By restricting professionally produced news, Facebook is allowing the promotion of conspiracy theories," a representative said. Agencies

Cyber attacks target Myanmar govt websites

YANGON

HACKERS targeted Myanmar government websites on Thursday to protest against the military coup, as the junta pressed on with its attempts to stymie nationwide opposition with internet blockades and troop deployments. The cyber attacks came a day after tens of thousands of people rallied across the country to protest against the generals toppling Aung San Suu Kyi's civilian government earlier this month.

A group called Myanmar Hackers disrupted websites including the Central Bank, the Myanmar military's propaganda page, state-run broadcaster MRTV, the Port Authority, and the Food and Drug Administration.

"We are fighting for justice in Myanmar," the group said on its Facebook page.

"It is like mass protesting of people in front of government websites."

State-run newspaper New Light of Myanmar also confirmed military websites were "under attacks" with delays on Wednesday.

Cybersecurity expert Matt Warren from Australia's RMIT University said it was likely the aim was to generate publicity.

"The sorts of attacks they would be undertaking are denial of service attacks or defacing websites which is called hacktivism," he told AFP. Internet access was severely curtailed for the fourth night running at about 1.00 am on Thursday, according to NetBlocks. AFP

Govt mulls bank merger before privatisation

FinMin officials say the 'weakest' bank won't be privatised, rather it will be on the basis of unlocking the valuation

ANURADHA SHUKLA @New Delhi

THE government will look into the balance sheet of banks in the first quarter of next financial year and may consider merger of two public sector banks, before going ahead with privatisation. According to sources in the Finance Ministry, the government has not yet shortlisted any bank so far and it would be done only after examining the balance sheet.

"Lots of names are floating but we have not shortlisted anything yet. It will be decided after taking into account performance of the Q4 (Jan-March 2021) and Q1 of FY22 (April to June 2021) after consultation with the RBI. If required, the PSBs can be merged before privatisation," a senior official with the finance ministry told TNIE.

The finance minister, in her budget speech, had announced that two state-run banks will be privatised in the next fiscal. "Other than IDBI Bank, we propose to take up the privatisation of two public-sector banks and one General Insurance company in the year 2021-22," Nirmala Sitharaman had said.

Other banks including Bank of India as well as Punjab and Sind Bank were also doing the rounds in various media reports.

However, the official added that it may not be the "weakest" bank which will go for privatisation. "The decision will be taken on the basis of unlocking the valuation and not on which is the weakest Bank. It is a more complex process. A lot of factors may go into the decision making and also on the appetite of the investor," the official argued.

On the timeline, the official ruled out the process would be initiated in the first half of the next financial year. "There are many legal processes which need to be followed to facilitate privatisation and it requires certain amendments. All these will take some time," the official said. The government is likely to bring amendments to two legislations later this year. Finance ministry sources said that amendments would be required in the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 and the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980 to facilitate the privatisation.

Piramal Group gets RBI nod for DHFL takeover

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has approved the resolution plan for Dewan Housing Finance Corporation Ltd (DHFL) submitted by Piramal Group, a month after the billionaire Ajay Piramal-led firm won the bidding for the bankrupt mortgage lender. The lenders will now take the proposal to the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT).

"We understand that the RBI has approved the DHFL resolution plan from Piramal Capital and Housing Finance, submitted by the Committee of Creditors," Piramal Enterprises Ltd said in a statement on Thursday. Piramal Capital and Housing Finance Ltd had emerged as the successful bidder for debt laden DHFL in January this year. The creditors to DHFL gave more than 94 per cent votes in favour of Piramal's resolution plan.

American asset management company Oaktree had placed the highest at ₹35,700 crore, as against Piramal's ₹34,250 crore. Piramal's offer, however, had a higher upfront cash payment and that swung support in its favour, which includes an upfront cash component of ₹14,700 crore and a deferred component of ₹19,550 crore, translating to around 43 percent recovery for the DHFL lenders. According to the resolution plan, Piramal will merge its existing financial services business with DHFL. The merged entity is likely to focus largely on the retail real estate and lending space.

DHFL collapsed under the weight of a severe liquidity crunch after Infrastructure Leasing & Financial Services (IL&FS) went bust in late 2018. It was pushed to NCLT in December 2019. Since then, the creditors have been attempting for a resolution.

DHFL owes around ₹91,000 crore. State Bank of India is its biggest creditor, with an exposure of around ₹10,000 crore. Other lenders include National Housing Bank, Bank of India, Canara Bank, Union Bank of India, Syndicate Bank, and Bank of Baroda.

'India marching towards self-reliance'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Chennai

INDUSTRIALIST and vice-chairman of India Cements N Srinivasan has said the country, being the second largest producer of cement, has the potential of becoming a manufacturing hub for many products other than cement. Speaking at a function here, he said, "India is marching towards becoming self-reliant and a strong manufacturing base."

According to Srinivasan, present at the inauguration of a new office set up here for the South by the Asian-Arab Chamber of Commerce, the country has emerged as a big market for manufactured products and services besides being a significant exporter of information technology.

"In the last 10-15 years, India has seen a big transformation especially under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi," he said. Terming the union budget presented by Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman as "path-breaking", he said the budget seeks to address the envisages spending a lot of money on development in every sphere, including infrastructure and housing.

He also invited investors in Asian and Arab countries and other parts of the world to invest in infrastructure and other sectors in India. "India is the second largest producer of cement after China. India has the scope for becoming a manufacturing hub for many other products," he added.

Cairn CEO meets Finance Secy over tax dispute

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

NINE days after stating that he would hold a meeting with India's finance minister, Britain's Cairn Energy Chief Executive Simon Thomson on Thursday met top officials of the ministry, including Finance Secretary AB Pandey and CBDT Chairman P C Mody. The meeting holds big significance as Cairn is said to have filed cases in the US, the UK and the Netherlands courts to recover $1.4 billion in a tax dispute it won against India in an international arbitration tribunal.

"We had a constructive dialogue and the dialogue is ongoing. I can't comment more on the meeting," said Thompson. In a video message last week, Thomson had sought a meeting with Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman during his visit to India. However, FM reportedly authorised the finance secretary to meet him and hear out the company. Reports suggest that India may file an appeal against the December 21 ruling. Cairn shareholders, however, have been pressing the company management to get the $1.4 billion the tribunal had ordered India to return.

Cairn has threatened to seize Indian government assets overseas if the givey fails to return the value of the shares sold, dividend seized and tax refund withheld by the income tax department to recover part of the tax demand. The firm has started identifying assets, including ships and planes, it could seize if the Indian government does not comply with the tribunal order. But, Cairn shareholders, after waiting patiently for seven years for resolution of the tax issue, now want action to recover the award.

The shareholders include big financial institutions such as BlackRock, Fidelity, Franklin Templeton, Schroders and Aviva. Meanwhile, the government has, so far since the judgment was issued, given no indication about whether it intends to honour the verdict.

WHAT IS THIS CASE?

- Like Vodafone, this dispute between the Indian government and Edinburgh-based company relates to retrospective taxation.
- In 2006-07, as a part of internal rearrangement, Cairn UK transferred shares of Cairn India Holdings to Cairn India.
- Tax authorities then contented that Cairn UK had made capital gains and slapped it with a tax demand of ₹24,500 crore.
- Cairn refused to pay the tax, which prompted cases being filed at I-T Appellate Tribunal
- Cairn had lost the case at ITAT. An arbitration tribunal at the Hague awarded $1.2 billion in damages plus interest to Cairn.

Tech industry has $200 bn opportunity in next few years, say top IT CEOs

BISMAH MALIK @Bengaluru

THERE is, perhaps, no other sector other than the tech industry that made the most out of the Covid-19 pandemic with technology becoming integral to businesses worldwide. Going forward, the tech czars in India believe that the opportunities are massive.

Addressing a virtual round table talk with industry peers during the Nasscom's Technology leadership Forum 2021, HCL Tech CEO C Vijayakumar said the incremental technological spends of enterprises for the next 4-5 years will present a trillion dollar opportunity. Within that, the IT industry is likely to have a 20 per cent share amounting to a $200 billion opportunity, he added.

Salil Parekh, CEO, Infosys concurred. He said there is a chance that the industry will double its revenue mark in the next few years with a huge focus on enabling digital transformation for clients in areas like cloud, cyber security, data analytics. Digital revenues, according to Parekh, have seen a 80 per cent growth during the pandemic, strengthened the deal pipeline and the demand is being felt across the sectors. This tech-enabled business transformation will be beneficial to the IT sector in the near term, according to Vijayakumar, but the tech firms will have to evolve with the changing demands from the client side and align with the business outcomes of their partner firms.

As automation takes over, the CEOs say there should not be any fear of fewer jobs and the focus should be squarely on upskilling and reskilling. Wipro CEO Thierry Delaporte also stated that we can create more job creation in an era of Machine learning and Artificial intelligence. The IT industry, according to a recently released Nasscom report, has hired 1.38 lakh people during the pandemic year with a clear focus of hiring more freshers.

MOTILAL OSWAL AMC LAUNCHES TWO NFOs

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Chennai

MOTILAL Oswal Asset Management Company (AMC) launched two new fund of fund offers that will invest across its actively managed schemes in domestic and international equities and debt market schemes, while also investing in ICICI Mutual Fund's gold fund.

The Motilal Oswal Asset Allocation Passive FoFs come in two variants — aggressive and conservative. The NFO opens on Friday and closes on March 5, and the date of allotment is March 12. The fund house has also filed papers with markets regulator SEBI for launching two passive index funds on emerging markets and developed markets, with focus on Europe and Japan. Currently, the fund house's passive funds asset under management is worth ₹6,500 crore. The fund will follow strategic rebalancing, eliminating market-timing risk. There is no fund manager risk or credit risk involved. The FoFs will be taxed as debt instruments and long-term investors can claim indexation benefits "With thousands of investment options today, this single fund is sufficient for an investor's needs. These funds deliver good returns in most market conditions," said Pratik Oswal, head - Passive Funds, Motilal Oswal AMC.

India Inc likely to give 7.3% average increment this year: Survey

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

ABOUT 92 per cent of the companies plan to give an increment in FY22 compared with only 60 per cent in FY21 and the average increment for companies in India is expected to go up to 7.3 per cent in the upcoming fiscal from 4.4 per cent this fiscal, according to a Workforce and Increment Trends Survey by Deloitte. However, the 7.3 per cent projected increment is lower than the 8.6 per cent average increment in FY20. Also, 20 per cent of the surveyed companies plan to give a double-digit increment in FY22 compared with only 12 per cent this financial year.

"Covid-19 has made year-on-year analysis tricky as 2020 (FY21) has been an anomaly, making 2019 (FY20) a better year for comparison… While business activity is rebounding quickly, organisations are managing compensation budgets responsibly considering their affordability and sustainability of fixed cost increases," said Anandorup Ghose, partner at DTTILLP. He added, "Post March 2020, most companies decided either not to offer increments or defer them until they get more clarity. About 25 per cent companies even extended a pay cut to senior management. Organisations largely preferred saving jobs of most to offering higher increments and bonuses to a few. Given that the risks related to the pandemic are not over yet, it is no surprise that they are treading with caution." About 400 organisations participated in the survey spread across seven sectors and 25 sub-sectors.

The study finds that every sector is expected to give a higher increment. While Information Technology (IT) and Life sciences are expected to give the highest increments, the manufacturing and services sectors may offer relatively lower salary increases.

Double-digit hike

Digital and e-commerce companies are expected to offer double-digit average increments in FY22, states the survey. However, it is likely to be the lowest in sectors like hospitality and real estate companies.

Dear Sir,

Re: Show Cause Notice for declaring M/s. Associate Decor Ltd. (earlier known as M/s. Star Panel Boards Ltd.) and its Directors/ Guarantors as Wilful Defaulters and Opportunity for Representation there against.

We refer to your captioned account and write to inform you that due to non-payment of interest/instalment, account turned to Non-Performing Assets in the books of the Bank on 31.03.17.

We further write to inform you that as per the directions of the Committee of Executives on Wilful Defaulters of our Bank and on scrutiny of your account based on your acts of omission and commission, deeds/ documents and writings, performed /executed by the Company and its directors/guarantors, the Company and its directors/guarantors be classified as Wilful defaulter as per guidelines of RBI on the following grounds:

1 The Company has been procuring main raw material (wood) from M/s. Kingwoods Supplier (KWS) which is owned by Mr. Farook Ali Khan (MD of M/s. Associate Décor Ltd). M/s. King Woods Supplier supplying raw material at a higher price as compared to the prevailing market price. Due to this higher price M/s. King Woods Supplier has profited almost Rs.8.00 cr by over pricing (the price at which KWS supplied wood to ADL being higher than the mutually agreed price)
Since the related party was the sole vendor for the raw material so such arrangement between the Companies can be conveniently used for siphoning of funds.
Under disclosure of related party transactions LC discounting charges have been reimbursed to M/s. Kingwoods Supplier, it indicates funding arrangement done by the promoters.

2 The Company has acquired 60 acres of land from the Karnataka Industrial Development Board. The Company has paid a total amount of Rs.26.03 Cr. for land of which:- Rs.14.52 Cr. has been paid to the Karnataka Government, Rs.11.51 Cr. has been paid to the then Managing director Mr. Farook Ali Khan.
The Company has not given any explanation to the forensic auditor about the transaction effected between Company and the then Managing director Mr. Farook Ali Khan.

3 The Company has opened current account with HDFC Bank, Union Bank of India, Bank of India, Syndicate Bank, outside consortium and these accounts were opened without the permission of lending Banks. In FY17 the transaction with HDFC Bank was Rs.53.70 Cr. and with Union Bank of India Rs.31.98 Cr.

4 The Company has given advances of Rs.5.46 Cr to M/s. Batavia Exim & Contracting (S) Pte. Ltd. In FY17. The amount is more than 3 years old. The Company has not made any provision for this. No concrete explanation provided to auditors.

5 The Company has indulged in suppressing its true receipts by making unaccounted scrap sales of Rs.97,11,035/- which was offered as income after the initiation of the search.

6 During the search process the Company has submitted revised return claiming bills discounting charges of Rs.88,91,272/- as expenses which represents debit notes raised by M/s King wood supplier. This was disallowed by income tax authority.

7 The assessment order given to the forensic auditors for the assessment year 2012-13 clearly speaks that even though there was no sales of manufacturing or traded goods in FY12, the Company has claimed selling expenses of Rs.43,07,122, which were disallowed by the Income tax authorities.

Thus the company has defaulted in meeting its payment/ repayment obligations to the lender and has siphoned off the funds so that the funds have not been utilised for the specific purpose for which finance was availed of, nor are the funds available with the unit in the form of other assets

In terms of RBI guidelines and to comply principles of natural justice, if you, desire, you may send your submission for consideration by the Committee of Executives, headed by our Executive Director within -15- days from the date of receipt of this letter as to why your account and you be not classified by Bank as a Wilful Defaulter. The Committee reserves the right to give or not to give the personal hearing to decide about classifying as wilful defaulter in case your submission is received.

Please note that, in case your submission against the intention of Bank to declare you as a Wilful Defaulter is not received within -15- days from the date of receipt of this letter, the Bank will proceed further and classify your account as wilful defaulter. Bank reserves the Right to publish the name and photograph of Wilful Defaulter in News Paper and will initiate the necessary recovery action as per extant guidelines issued by Reserve Bank of India.

This communication is issued as per the directions of the Committee of Executives on Wilful Defaulters (COE)

Yours faithfully,
Asst General Manager

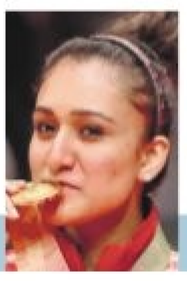
Manika wins women's nationals singles title



Star paddler Manika Batra clinched her second title by defeating Reeth Rishya 4-2 in the women's singles final of the senior national table tennis championships on Thursday. The top-ranked Indian in the world made a comeback after losing the first two games to win the match and title 8-11, 10-12, 11-1, 11-9, 11-5, 11-6.

MONEY HEIST

Morris and Gowtham steal the show with record some in the IPL Auction 2021

Most expensive overseas buys this year

- Chris Morris | RR
  Base price: ₹75L | Sold for: ₹16.25 cr
- Kyle Jamieson | RCB
  Base price: ₹75L | Sold for: ₹15 cr
- Glenn Maxwell | RCB
  Base price: ₹2 cr | Sold for: ₹14.25 cr
- Jhye Richardson | PBKS
  Base price: ₹1.5 cr | Sold for: ₹14 cr
- Moeen Ali | CSK
  Base price: ₹2 cr | Sold for: ₹7 cr

Name trumps performance

Maxwell for Australia and Maxwell for IPL sides are two different things. While he is rather good for his country, he has seldom lived upto the name in the IPL. But this could be an educated decision by Kohli & Co to go for him.

Uncapped big buys

- K Gowtham | CSK
  Base price: ₹20L | Sold for: ₹9.2 cr
  Played just 2 matches last season but a proven all-rounder who can finish matches. Has a strike-rate close to 170. Can also chip in with off-spin.
- Riley Meredith | PBKS
  Base price: ₹40L | Sold for: ₹8 cr
  The 24-year-old Aussies pacer has been consistent in BBL, having picked up 16 wickets in 13 games this season for Hobart.
- M Shahrukh Khan | PBKS
  Base price: ₹20L | Sold for: ₹5.25 cr
  Picked in IPL for the first time, this SRK is known for his power-hitting at the state level. Plays as a finisher for TN.

A month after brother's loss, Chetan becomes millionaire

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

THE Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy this season was make or break for most of the domestic cricketers especially with IPL auctions following it. Chetan Sakariya, a left-arm seamer of Saurashtra, was no different. Given his time at Royal Challengers Bangalore nets last season, the 22-year-old impressed at the domestic T20 tournament with 12 wickets in five matches.

While he was making progress by leaps and bounds on the field, a big tragedy struck Sakariya family last month. Rahul, Chetan's younger brother, had died by suicide. "I was playing in the tournament when it happened. Nobody informed me about it. Whenever I enquired about him, they gave me excuses," Chetan, who was bought for ₹1.2 crore by Rajasthan Royals on Thursday, told this daily.

Understandably, the family didn't want to distract Chetan by giving him the sad news. "He was working with my uncle. We still don't know the reasons but I hope he stays happy where ever he is," said Chetan.

Chetan Sakariya was bought for ₹1.2 cr

Giving his family a comfortable life including Rahul's marriage was on top of Chetan's agenda. As the brother is gone now, Chetan now wants to buy a house for his parents and younger sister in Rajkot. The family currently lives in Vartej, a small town ten kilometres from Bhavnagar in Gujarat.

"The Vartej house belongs to my grandfather. Apart from us, my uncle's family also stays here. I have seen a lot of houses in Rajkot, but haven't finalised one yet. Due to the pandemic, it would not be possible to finalise one at the moment. I will try to get it done after the IPL 2021."

Remembering his days at the RCB nets, the cricketer said he learnt a lot of variations there which helped him during the T20 tournament. "Head coach Simon Katich and director of cricket operations Mike Hesson were very helpful during my stint with Bangalore."

Chetan, who had spent around three years at the MRF Pace Academy, also credited former Australia legend, Glenn McGrath, for his success. "He (McGrath) taught me to be aggressive while bowling and always look for wickets. His advice was to read batsmen's mind and bowl accordingly."

Brother's untimely demise might have made Chetan think about shifting to Rajkot. While Rahul will always be there in his memory, the recent developments would definitely help Chetan to make a new beginning at a new place forgetting unpleasant stories from the past.

Gowtham's dream to play under Dhoni comes true

ASHIM SUNAM @Bengaluru

KRISHNAPPA Gowtham was 'nervous' when his name was called in the IPL auction while watching it live on a TV at a hotel room in Ahmedabad on Thursday. It grew manifold when the teams started a bidding war for him. The Karnataka off-spinner, whose base price was Rs 20 lakh, was eventually snapped up by Chennai Super Kings, for a staggering Rs 9.25 crores.

Apparently, he was on the wishlist of the three-time champions. CSK skipper MS Dhoni was seen chatting with him on the field during the IPL on a couple of occasions in the past as well. And now, the 32-year-old Gowtham will be sharing the dressing room with the former India captain.

"It is, of course, a dream come true for me to play under him (Dhoni)," Gowtham told this daily. On Thursday, he also became the most expensive uncapped Indian player in the IPL. "I did not have any price tag in my mind. I was fortunate that I have been picked for a high amount."

Gowtham was in high demand as he sparked a bidding war between Kolkata Knight Riders and Sunrisers Hyderabad. Chennai entered the fray only when his price rose to Rs 7.75 cr. With several teams eager to spend big on him, it just goes on to show how much they value him at this level.

Besides being a number one spinner of Karnataka, he is also known to play match-winning knocks with the bat lower down the order. All these factors must have led teams to go all out for him.

OSAKA HALTS SERENA'S OZ OPEN DREAM, DJOKOVIC CLOSER TO TITLE

Novak Djokovic

RESULTS (Semifinals)

Men: N Djokovic (SRB x1) bt Aslan Karatsev (RUS) 6-3, 6-4, 6-2. Women: J Brady (USA x22) bt K Muchova (CZE x25) 6-4, 3-6, 6-4; N Osaka (JPN x3) bt S Williams (USA x10) 6-3, 6-4.

Friday's fixture: Men's semifinal: D Medvedev (RUS x4) v S Tsitsipas (GRE x5) | 2pm| LIVE ON SONY SIX

AFP @Melbourne

JAPAN'S Naomi Osaka brutally halted Serena Williams's latest bid for a record-equalling 24th Grand Slam title Thursday, as Novak Djokovic wrote the final chapter of qualifier Aslan Karatsev's fairy-tale run. Fans returned after a five-day coronavirus lockdown in time to see an emotional exit from Williams, Jennifer Brady's win over Karolina Muchova and top-ranked Djokovic preserving his perfect semifinal record at Karatsev's expense.

Triple major-winner Osaka, 23, again proved Williams' nemesis with a one-sided 6-3, 6-4 win which heightened questions about whether the American, 39, will ever match Margaret Court's all-time record for Slam singles titles. Williams put her hand on her heart as she acknowledged a standing ovation on Rod Laver Arena, and later walked out of her post-match press conference in tears, saying: "I'm done."

The returning spectators also witnessed the end of 114th-ranked Karatsev's astonishing campaign, when he became the first man in the Open era to reach a Grand Slam semifinal on debut. Karatsev knocked out three seeds to reach the last four but he was no match for Djokovic, the record eight-time Melbourne champion.

Dutee wins 100m sprint

PTI @Patiala

DUTEE Chand breezed to 100m victory in the Indian Grand Prix I athletics meet at the Netaji Subhash National Institute of Sports here on Thursday. Dutee, representing Odisha, won in 11.51 seconds, ahead of Karnataka's T Daneshwari (11.86) and Maharashtra's Diandra Dudley Valladares (11.97).

The 25-year-old Dutee, the national record holder in the event with 11.22, is yet to qualify for the Tokyo Olympics. The qualification time for Tokyo Games is 11.15 seconds. It was the first national-level track and field event for seniors meet since the National Open Athletics Championships in Ranchi in October 2019.

Kerala's Muhammad Anas Yahiya, the leading 400m runner in the country, took part in the 100m event and finished a creditable second in 10.70 seconds, two-hundredths of a second behind Krishnakumar Satish Rane (Maharashtra).

Dortmund win, Porto down Juve

AFP @Paris

ERLING Braut Haaland produced another deadly display of finishing with a first-half brace as Borussia Dortmund came from behind to beat Sevilla 3-2 in Spain in the first leg of their Champions League last-16 tie on Wednesday.

Suso's deflected strike gave last season's Europa League winners an early lead at the Ramon Sanchez Pizjuan stadium, but Mahmoud Dahoud soon equalised before Haaland took over. The Norwegian phenomenon put Dortmund in front in the 27th minute and then scored again two minutes before half-time, the goals taking him to 25 in 24 appearances this season in all competitions, and 18 in 13 CL appearances since the start of last season.

Meanwhile, Cristiano Ronaldo's first game for Juventus in his native Portugal ended in 2-1 defeat as FC Porto out-played the Italians for much of Wednesday's Champions League last-16, first leg tie. Iranian Mehdi Taremi put the hosts ahead after just a minute.

Pentagon officials said that about one-third of the US military are declining to receive the Covid-19 vaccine, despite significant coronavirus infection levels in the forces. Major General Jeff Taliaferro revealed the high refusal rate in Congressional hearing, as the US Defense Department continues to classify covid vaccines as optional.

SOLVING A MURDER 3,600 YEARS LATER

The death of Seqenenre Tao II, "the Brave", one of Egypt's most pivotal pharaohs, was always a mystery. That it was violent was certain; X-ray scans of his body in the 1960s revealed head wounds adeptly concealed by embalmers, giving rise to theories that Seqenenre was killed in battle or a palace assassination. But a new study using modern medical technology adds a new twist to this story

REVEALED

1

Execution ceremony

After conducting CT scans and producing 3D images, archaeologist Zahi Hawass and Cairo University radiology professor Sahar Salim concluded that he was killed in an "execution ceremony" after being taken prisoner on the battlefield

2

Head injuries

The CT scan "revealed details of the head injuries, including wounds that had not been discovered in previous examinations and had been skillfully hidden by embalmers," the Ministry of Antiquities said in a statement

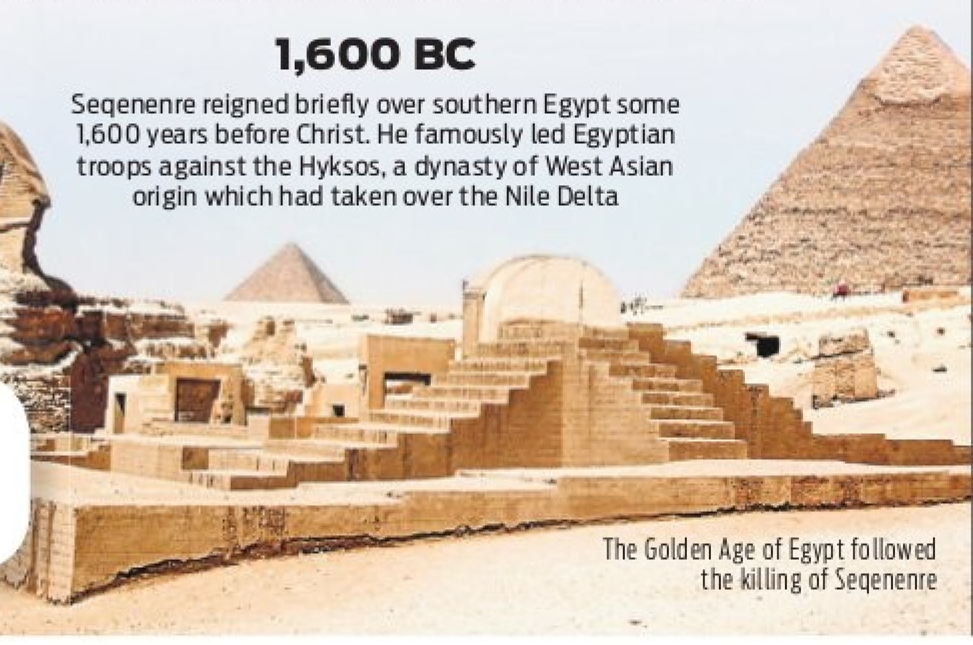
Seqenenre was killed while attempting to overthrow the Hyksos dynasty, which held power across the kingdom from 1,650 BC to 1,550 BC. The study suggested his execution was not clean. Seqenenre may have been attacked by several people with different weapons, indicating that it was a show-killing

1,600 BC

Seqenenre reigned briefly over southern Egypt some 1,600 years before Christ. He famously led Egyptian troops against the Hyksos, a dynasty of West Asian origin which had taken over the Nile Delta



The Golden Age of Egypt followed the killing of Seqenenre

The study in Frontiers of Medicine revealed bone scans showing that the pharaoh was around 40 years old

1880s

Researchers have spend decades trying to decipher the death of Seqenenre, whose body was found in the late 19th century

Which weapon?

- The researchers then studied these injuries against the Hyksos weapons stored at the Egyptian Museum in Cairo, including an axe, spear and daggers
- The mummy's "deformed hands indicate that Seqenenre may have been captured on the battlefield, and his hands were tied behind his back, preventing him from deflecting the fierce attack" on his head

Why Seqenenre is important

Seqenenre's death pushed his successors to continue fighting to unify Egypt and start the New Kingdom — the 500-year prospering of Egypt referred to as its Golden Age. And perhaps Seqenenre had earned his "the Brave" nickname. The study suggests that he was "on the front line with his soldiers risking his life to liberate Egypt", unlike other ancient Egyptian rulers such as Tutankhamun

Africa docs pay with their lives for vax hoarding

Health workers in the continent die of Covid-19 as rich countries elsewhere secure vaccine doses for themselves

MEDICINE

HARARE: When James Gita Hakim, an acclaimed AIDS researcher and cardiologist, died on January 26, the medical community in Zimbabwe was devastated. Science magazine reported that he had fallen severely sick due to Covid-19 and died in the ICU — only one of many prominent African doctors whose recent deaths could have been avoided had African countries received vaccine doses on time.

Over 188 million Covid-19 vaccine doses have been administered worldwide, far higher than even the number of confirmed coronavirus cases recorded so far. Yet, Africa has administered fewer than 2 million shots, illustrating how poor countries have been left empty-handed after rich nations hoarded doses for themselves.

Not one country in sub-Saharan Africa has begun immunising its population, resulting in the deaths of health care workers in regions that can hardly afford to lose them.

An anaesthesiologist, gastroenterologist, urologist and 2 young general physicians died in Mozambique in recent weeks, Science reported, citing parasitologist Emilia Noormahomed of Eduardo Mondlane University. Several more doctors are seriously ill, draining Mozambique of this crucial resource as it has only 8 doctors per 1,00,000 people, compared with nearly 300 in the US.

A health care worker gets a vaccine shot in South Africa on Thursday

"It will literally take an entire generation to rebuild [from such losses]," Ashish Jha, dean of Brown University's School of Public Health, told the magazine.

Africa had seemed to have emerged relatively in good shape after the first wave of the pandemic, though inadequate testing continued to obscure the actual number of cases. Even as it continued to weather subsequent waves, the near-complete absence of vaccines has made African health workers highly vulnerable.

The UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres voiced alarm on Wednesday that just 10 nations have administered 75 percent of doses so far -- and 130 countries have had none at all.

"The [pandemic's] second wave, and potentially the third, is fought with a combination of public health measures and biomedical interventions, and that will increase the inequities," John Nkengasong, head of the Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention, was quoted as saying, in reference to how expensive Covid-19 drugs such as tocilizumab are not widely available on the continent.

Robert Schooley, an infectious disease researcher at the University of California, San Diego, told the magazine that the US should do more to protect African health workers. The US had in the past spent over $80 billion on anti-AIDS campaigns in the continent and saved many lives. "We have worked with our counterparts in sub-Saharan Africa for 20 years to try to help them build a more resilient health care infrastructure," he said. "And we're sitting on our hands watching that be torn apart by the coronavirus."

Zimbabwe and South Africa began vaccinating their populations this week in a delayed start to immunisation.

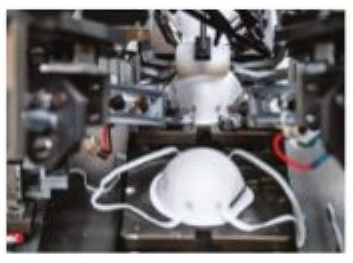
Waymo test for robo-taxis

TECHNOLOGY

Waymo, the autonomous driving unit of Google parent Alphabet, said it would begin testing its driverless ride-hailing service on the streets of San Francisco. The move expands the testing for the autonomous vehicles, which have been in use in the Phoenix, Arizona area since 2017. The first tests will be with Waymo employees, to gain feedback before expanding to more riders. Waymo has improved its tech, which will be used for "tackling the city's iconic topographical variety – from rolling hills to sandy ocean highways, tiny side streets to huge freeways, bike lanes to tram tracks, and everything in between," a company blog post said. The company said it has improved its lidar vision system as well.

Millions of N95s unused



HEALTH

A Florida manufacturer that pounced on the N95 mask shortage at the start of the pandemic and retooled to churn them out now has 30 million of the coverings going begging. DemeTech, a factory based in Miami, blames its woes on lower prices for Chinese-made N95s. Wholesale dealers say the problem is Americans are wary of new makers of the devices. A few dozen other US manufacturers are reportedly in similar straits. The New York Times reported last week that nearly two dozen frims are struggling to sell their N95 masks despite promises by the government — under Trump at first and now Biden — to support US manufacturers.

Get jabbed or get sacked, Vatican tells staff

VATICAN CITY: Vatican staff who refuse to be vaccinated against Covid-19 could be sacked under a decree made public Thursday by the city state, which employs around 5,000 people. An employee must have a documented medical reason for refusing a jab or face "consequences of various degrees which may go as far as the termination of employment", as per the text.

UN warns of triple threat to humanity

ENVIRONMENT

LONDON: Climate change, biodiversity loss and pollution pose a triple threat to human health and prosperity that may be averted only by transforming how we power our economies and feed ourselves, the United Nations said on Thursday.

A scientific assessment by the UN Environment Programme found that galloping economic growth has come at a devastating cost to the planet and urged governments, businesses and people to act to reverse the damage before it is too late.

Drawing on findings from other major assessments on climate and biodiversity from expert international panels, the report titled "Making Peace With Nature" said a rapid shift to renewable energy and eliminating habitat loss are essential to preventing "unacceptable risk" for future generations.

The report found that the global economy had grown nearly fivefold in the last 50 years fuelled by a tripling in extraction of natural resources and energy.

Yet amid such prolific growth, the burden of the environmental fallout is borne by the poorest and most vulnerable, it said. Although average prosperity has doubled over the last five decades, around 1.3 billion people are classed as poor and 700 million go to bed hungry each night.

The assessment said that environmental degradation was undermining progress on ending poverty and hunger and warned that pandemics such as Covid-19 were increasingly likely in future as we continue to strip away species' natural habitats.

None of the goals the world set itself a decade ago for halting nature loss has been met, with one million species of plants and animals currently threatened with extinctio. The assessment recommended that protected areas be expanded to for the sake of wild species.

New deep-freeze vaccine tech

MEDICINE

A South African company is seeking to help solve the logistical nightmare of keeping Covid-19 vaccinations at the ultra-cold temperatures necessary as they are shipped across the continent. Johannesburg-based natural gas producer Renergen is developing an ultra-cold biologic transport freezer for the task. Renergen's design will use helium to transport vials by air and nitrogen by road, keeping them at between -150 to eight degree Celsius, its CEO Stefano Marani said. The storage case, called Cryo-Vacc, can operate without power supply for more than 25 days, he said. Vaccines are often transported in Africa in dry ice that usually last about only three days. Marani said their biggest container can hold between 5,000 and 6,000 vials. "It has been designed for the field. You can kick it, you can drop it, you can leave it in the sun, it doesn't care, it's going to operate until it runs out of cryogen," said Marani. The vaccines developed jointly by US pharmaceutical giant Pfizer and Germany's BioNTech must be stored at -70 degrees Celsius, a far cry from what much of rural Africa can support.
